n Reason Why.—We see that quite a ber of our contemporaries are using excla- ion points over the announcement that the hern States have swept off all the honors at st Point. The six best scholars at West t, appointed during the war, hail from the th, and nine of the first twelve places on scale of general merit are taken this year men appointed from the South. The in- y is also raised if the South was considered tled to cadet privileges during the war. think we can make a satisfactory explana- —one that will, perhaps, soothe the ruffled e of the Northern States. It so happens the successful graduates accredited to the th really belong to the Northern and stern States who, having distinguished nselves by gallant services in the Union y during the early part of the war, were ninated to West Point as from Southern es, in order to fill up the allotment of ca- accorded to those States previous to the ellion. The citizens of those States had cut mselves off from the privileges of West nt scholarship by going into the rebellion; , as above stated, under the rule of appor- ment, gallant, meritorious Union boys from North were sent to West Point accredited hese Southern States.—*Wash. WASHINGTON, June 11, 1867.

Attorney General Stanbery's Opinion.

The Cabinet to-day held its first meeting since the President's return, and the important question so freely canvassed of late relating to the power of military commanders under the reconstruction law to remove State and municipal officials of State governments, denominated by the act of Congress as provisional, was among the matters which were discussed. It is understood that the Attorney General holds such removals can only be made when the State or local officials are impeding the enforcement of the reconstruction law, and only then in the way provided by said act. They must first be arrested on that charge and tried in the manner provided in the law. If convicted and sentenced, the office which they filled of course becomes vacant. In other words, it is claimed that Military Commanders have no more power over these officials than they have over any other person in the Military District which they command, and that they must all be proceeded against in the same way whenever they are charged with hindering the enforcement of the law. As the logical sequence it is further maintained that these commanders have no legal power under the reconstruction act to fill any vacancy in State or municipal offices, created in that way any more than they have to fill a vacancy on the bench occasioned by the death of a Judge holding his office under any of these State Governments. These were the points made by the Attorney General and other members of the Cabinet, but as the full opinion had not been written out, no final conclusion was arrived at. If this view be adopted by the President, there is no doubt but that he will restore Governor Wells to his place, and reinstate the displaced Mobile officials, though the Southern men here asking for such action fear that it will not take place until after the time for the summer session of Congress is passed.

The Southern Political Campaign.

General Schenck, Chairman of the Congressional Republican Committee, returned here to-night, and reports that on yesterday that Committee met the National Executive Committee in Philadelphia of which Governor Ward is Chairman, with reference to the organization of the South and the approaching elections generally. A definite plan of co-operation of the two committees was agreed upon, in which all conflict will be avoided, and the efficiency of each committee be promoted by the power and assistance of the other. The committee have decided to distribute twenty thousand copies of the political manual prepared by the Clerk of the House.

Novel Question.

Among the questions of novel interest before the Attorney General, is one arising under the internal revenue act, laying a tax of ten per cent. on the notes of parties or institutions of all sorts circulating as money, which in this case involves the question whether certificates proposed to be issued by the State of Alabama are bills of credit, and as such prohibited by the constitution of the United States.

Judiciary Committee.

The Judiciary Committee will reassemble on the twenty-sixth instant. The Clerk of the Committee is now arranging the impeachment evidence for submission to the House in case a quorum be present in July.

The Fenian Convicts.

The State Department learns that under instructions Mr. Adams interposed in cases of the Fenians convicted in Dublin, Col. Burke, McCafferty and McClure, all of whose sentences of death have been commuted. In the case of McCafferty a writ of error in review of the conviction was at the suggestion of his counsel sued out in behalf of the prisoner at the instance and expense of the United States.

A Canard.

A report, started by a New York evening paper, that the President is seriously ill with Bright's disease of the kidneys, is groundless.

Territorial Troops.

All applications by Territorial authorities to raise troops, or for local military forces against the Indians, are referred by the War Department to Gen. Sherman, in whom authority is vested to determine the necessities for troops, their numbers and equipment, with authority to take command and disband them immediately when the necessity for them ceases. This supervision and control is given him as commander of the Military Division, in order to confine the employment of local troops to cases of actual necessity and is subject them to some responsible control. The local authorities of every Territory are urgent to raise troops, but their applications are in every instance sent to General Sherman for such action as he deems necessary and proper.

Pension Surgeons.

The Commissioner of Pensions to-day appointed A. H. King, Pension Surgeon at Carthage, Tennessee, and Samual L. Bolton, at Greenville, Missouri.

Land Sales.

Returns to the Land Office, show that sixty-one thousand eight hundred acres were disposed of in the Brownsville, Nebraska district, during the month of May. There was also disposed of at Humboldt, Kansas, nearly 60,000 acres during the same period, 51,000 acres with college scrip and nearly 6,000 acres under the homestead act, and the balance with cash and warrants.

Bonds Missing.

It has been discovered that nine hundred thousand dollars of consolidated five-twenty bonds are missing from the Treasury Printing Bureau. They were not finished, and cannot be used as money, but the carelessness or theft which has caused such a loss excites consternation in the Department.

Office Seekers.

The applications by mail and telegraph for the vacant assessorship at Cincinnati exceed a dozen already, and more are promised. The contest is as exciting as that over the Cincinnati Postoffice last winter. The President seems in no hurry to make the appointment.

Expected.

Governor Wells, of Louisiana, is expected here to-morrow.

WASHINGTON, June 11.

THE CASE OF SURRATT.

The Surratt trial was resumed to-day. The entire session was consumed in arguments on the motion of the prosecution yesterday, and a demurrer filed to-day by the defense. The Court promised to give its opinion to-morrow.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION.

The points of Mr. Stanbery's opinion were before the Cabinet this morning. There seems no doubt he decides that military commanders cannot remove civil officers and put other civilians in their places.

RULES FOR GOVERNMENT OF DISTRICT COMMANDERS—WRANGLE IN THE CABINET.

It is stated that the President and Cabinet are about to consider the condition of the Southern States under the recent act of Congress, and proclaim certain rules in reference to the conduct of Major Generals commanding. It is furthermore rumored that the action of General Sheridan in removing Governor Wells, led to an angry discussion at a recent Cabinet meeting, and Mr. Stanbery is preparing an opinion to justify the President in removing General Sheridan.

THE REPORTED LOSS OF BONDS.

The reports of the loss of $99,000 in bonds from the Treasury grew out of the fact that ninety-nine sheets partially prepared for bonds are missing from a package of one thousand. There is authority for saying no completed bonds have been recently lost from the Treasury, and that these missing sheets are not likely to prove lost to the government or the public.

MAIL AGENTS AT HONG KONG.

The United States Consuls at Kanagawa and Shanghai are appointed postal agents to receive and dispatch mails between San Francisco, Japan and China. Negotiations are progressing with the British authorities for reduced rates of postage between this country and Hong Kong, and dependent Chinese ports and the East Indies.

PACIFIC BONDS TO BE ISSUED.

The President has given an order to issue bonds and patents for lands to the Union Pacific Railroad for the tenth section of forty miles, and also for the eighth section of twenty-five miles of the same road, eastern division.

TREASURY CIRCULAR.

A Treasury circular has been issued to Collector Smythe, of New York, saying the practice of permitting the removal of certain descriptions of imported merchandise to remote places before examination and appraisement must be discontinued.

CROP PROSPECTS.

Information has been received at the General Land Office from the West that the entire country shows signs of plenteous harvest. The crops of wheat, rye, oats, barley, grasses, and fruits of all kinds are said to be in a condition never exceeded in this country. The corn is not high, but good, and gives every promise of a great harvest.

SAVANNAH COTTON CLAIMS.

Ninety-three suits were commenced to-day by claimants of Savannah cotton, alleged to have been captured by General Sherman and sold in the city of New York. The claims amount to about four millions in gold, and the suits are authorized by recent acts of Congress.

TRIAL OF FOURTEEN-INCH GUNS.

The last fire of fourteen-inch guns at Fortress Monroe with one hundred pounds of powder and solid shot, at thirty-two degrees elevation, attained a range of 8,220 yards. A fourteen-inch gun of the navy pattern, was cast by Alleger, of South Boston, for the English Government, recently arrived in England and was taken to the great artillery proving ground at Shuburyness for competitive trial with English guns against iron plating.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

Dissensions in Republic of Columbia—Revolution in Peru, &c., &c.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Advices from Panama are to the 1st inst. A letter from Bogota states that on the closing of Congress and declaring the country in a state of war, the President of Cundinamarca, with some deputies, Gen. Ponce and others, were made prisoners by order of Mosquera. The majority in Congress were declared traitors, and at the same time peace, progress and liberty were announced by the President in an official speech. It is said the violent steps taken by General Mosquera have given great dissatisfaction in the capital, even among his own party, and that the mob which followed Gen. Aldana, President of Cundinamarca, to prison were so vociferous in condemning his arrest that they had finally to be dispersed by musketry. Santander, Antigao, Tolima and Magdalena have risen against Mosquera. The President of the latter State declared himself de facto President of the Republic of Columbia. The Attorney General of the nation and two Judges of the Supreme Court have resigned.

A circular note was addressed by General Olarte, President of the Senate of Panama, on the 25th, to consuls and commanders of foreign vessels of war in the ports of Aspinwall and Panama, notifying them there was a probability of the State being invaded by the national forces for a warlike purpose, and in such event he should deem it his duty to oppose their entrance on the Isthmus with the forces at his command. He also decrees a forced loan of $60,000 in the State, to be levied on the citizens. This requisition led to a meeting of Consuls and commanders of vessels of war in the harbor of Panama, and foreign merchants in that city, who have drawn up an energetic remonstrance.

Half the cochineal crop was destroyed in Gautemala by heavy rains.

A revolution was started in Peru. Castello had taken the field. The number of his forces is unknown, but it is no secret that troops from all parts of the republic are likely to tally to his standard. The Government dispatched large bodies of troops to meet him. If the soldiers remain faithful, says a letter from Peru, there is nothing to fear.

THE OIL COUNTRY.

Bohemian Emigrants—Their Appearance and Character—Robbed on the Way—Robberies at Corry.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

CORRY, June 7, 1867.

During a recent visit to Corry, while in the depot there alighted from the Philadelphia and Erie train a band of Bohemian emigrants. As they were the first of this nation whom I had seen on our shores, (though I had often read of them in the New York Herald, or a class of human pilgrims whom that venerable and truth-speaking sheet so called,) I think a short description of them may not be without interest to your readers.

There were two or three cars filled with families of this race. When they reached Corry, eight or ten of these families were ordered to leave the cars and take passage on the Atlantic and Great Western road. The destination of all was Chicago. They had come in company from the "Fader Land," and were bound to each other by weakness, dangers, language, relationship and alms, and I could not but look upon this separation as needless cruelty. They were a quiet, thoughtful looking people, very low and gentle in tone of speech, having none of the stormy boisterousness of the Prussians and Hanoverian. They all spoke German, but it was softer and more liquid than the language heard when on the Rhine. Some of the men spoke French. They had been farmers in Bohemia, and were in good circumstances. One of the men left in the car on the Erie road in his satchel $2,500 in gold, and did not discover that the most valuable part of his possessions were not with his baggage until the train was gone. The bag was in all likelihood seen and kept secure by his friends. I could not but admire the calm patience and wisdom of the stranger, when the telegraph sent the message to the next station, and all had been done that was possible in the case. The man walked about as observant of the scenes and as unruffled in face as any of his companions.

In such circumstances a Frenchman would have been insane, and probably blown out his brains. An Irishman would have been as furious as a bull in a fair, and knocked down friends and foes. An Italian would have wept like a child, shrieked out the names of all the saints and angels, pulled out his hair and cursed the day he was born. And even a pious Englishman would, I fear, have broken the third commandment. But this man was cast in a better mould; possibly he had in him some of the faith of Montague's ancestors.

The dress of this people was peculiar. They wore on the head heavy woolen caps without front piece, and surrounded with a band of black curled hair. Around their throats they wore heavy worsted handkerchiefs, as if each one was just recovering from an attack of sore throat and was guarding against a return. The coat was the skin of the Bohemian sheep—the wool within and the tanned white surface without. The wool on these skins had been dyed black, and was crisped in curliness. The men and women were short, heavily built, in arm, shoulder and chest, but their hands and feet were small. The men wore under their skin coat a knit woolen jacket. The pantaloon was close and tight to the flesh, and ended at the knee; on the leg to the knee was a close fitting stocking. The limbs were small and straight, being out of all proportion to the fullness and massiveness of the shoulders.

The women were solid, staid looking matrons, on the head wearing a woolen hood, and girded about with the many shawls and wrappings of the German peasant women. The children were above all praise. Though they had just awakened from their night slumbers, and had slept on the hard benches and floors, yet not one came out crying or sullen, and when on the portico of the depot they huddled around their mothers and took out their little cups and commenced eating their bread and milk as quietly and sweetly as if each one had said grace and an angel had come to eat with it. One could not but bless God that little children are everywhere at home.

These poor emigrants had been followed from New York by pickpockets. Three of the fifteen men had been robbed during the previous night of their watches. Some scoundrels had gone through the cars when all were asleep, and taken from them all the valuable articles they could lay hands on. How many others had suffered in like manner of the band in the other cars, these knew not. The United States Government ought to take special measures for the protection of such strangers, and a United States detective should accompany them from New York to their destination. And by special enactment of State Legislature, railroad companies should be held responsible for all losses in robberies on their trains sustained by foreign emigrants. For this people, from their ignorance of our language, from the distance and confusion of travel, become bewildered, and fall an easy prey to swindlers, land speculators, emigrant agents, and pickpockets. And every principle of honor and justice as well as humanity, demand that we should throw around them the strongest defenses, and protect them by an everwakeful agency from those unscrupulous vampires who are the curse of our land and the shame of the race.

Certain towns and cities have brought on their name a perpetual reproach, and the name of the place always awakens a feeling of indignation in the breasts of thousands. For these places sheltered and protected for a time pickpockets and garroters. Such a place is Corry. For years this was the terror of all travelers, and thousand of dollars have been stolen in a week. At one time it was the paradise of pickpockets, and half the citizens appeared to be in sympathy, if not in league with the robbers. From such a stain and odium it requires an age to deliver a town. I am happy to say that now there is no place where a traveler and emigrant is safer. And to the honor of some one or more of the railroad companies, there are reliable persons at the depot speaking the German, Irish and English language for the welfare and security of wayfarers.

NATIONAL TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION.—At the recent session of the National Typographical Union, in Memphis, the subject of admitting female compositors as members of subordinate Unions created considerable discussion. It was finally disposed of by leaving each subordinate Union at liberty to adopt its own rules upon the subject. A resolution was also offered that no negro should be eligible to a seat in the National Union, but the subordinate Unions might admit them if thought best. After some discussion, a resolution was adopted that it was inexpedient to legislate upon the subject at the present time. The new Constitution was taken up and discussed, clause by clause, and the name of the National Union was altered to the "National Typographical Union of America," which includes the Dominion of Canada and the British Provinces. The power was granted to the National Union to frame constitutions for the subordinate Unions.

FROM LAWRENCE, KAN.

The Senatorial Excursion Party—Rise in Kaw River.

LAWRENCE, KANSAS, June 11.—Mr. Wade's Senatorial party remained here to-day, and partook of a banquet given by the city. A brass band from Fort Leavenworth joined the party. Senators Pomeroy and Ross and Hon. Sidney Clark accompany the party, who were joined yesterday by General Palmer, Treasurer, and several other officers of the Union Pacific Railway, E. D., and their ladies. All left at three P. M., for Junction City.

The Kaw river has risen fourteen feet in twenty-four hours, owing to heavy rains on Republican fork.

MANHATTAN CITY, KANSAS, 120 miles west of Kansas City, June 11.—Senator Wade's party arrived here to-night, and were received at the railroad depot by Lieutenant Governor Green, who, in a brief speech highly complimentary to Mr. Wade, extended the hospitality of the city to the excursionists, and they voted unanimously to spend the night here, that they might see the city and the rest of this wonderfully fertile country by daylight.

Water in the Kaw river is falling very rapidly.

FROM RICHMOND.

Circular to Registers—Northern Politicians in the City—Effort to Unite the Republican Party of the State.

RICHMOND, June 11.—General Schofield has issued a circular to all Presidents of Boards of Registration, urging them to finish their work by the end of July.

Horace W. Hovey, school teacher of the freedmen, has been convicted of whipping a child not belonging to the school, and sentenced to pay one hundred dollars fine and imprisonment for one month. Schofield remitted the fine, and the Governor pardoned him from imprisonment.

A number of prominent Northern politicians, including Senator Wilson, are here to hold a conference with Virginians on the means of uniting the two wings of the Republican party, that represented by the Richmond Convention, and that which proposes to hold another convention in Charlottesville. At the Republican conference this evening, at the Governor's mansion, a free conference with forty or fifty gentlemen was held upon the prospects of the State election, the strength of the Republican party, &c. John M. Botts, Mr. Hunnicut, Judge Underwood and others took part in the discussion. About a dozen colored persons were present.

The conference is still in session, with little prospect of agreeing on a common platform. The representatives of the Richmond Convention contend that the action of that body ought to be final.

FROM ALBANY.

Proceedings of the Constitutional Convention.

ALBANY, June 11.—The Constitutional Convention to-day appointed Standing Committees and adopted resolutions calling for information relative to the cost, expenses, receipts, &c., of canals. A resolution appointing a Committee whether in their opinion a provision should be incorporated in the Constitution, authorizing women in the State to exercise the elective franchise, when they shall ask for that right by a majority of all votes given by citizen females over the age of twenty-one years, at an election called for that purpose, at which women alone shall have the right to vote, was laid on the table.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

Geo. W. Sharswood, of Fayette, the Nominee for Supreme Judge.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—The Democratic State Judicial Committee met to-day in Harrisburg. C. P. Boyle, of Fayette county, was chosen permanent Chairman. Geo. W. Sharswood was nominated for Judge of the Supreme Court.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The United States sloop-of-war Jamestown reports twenty-one cases of yellow fever, and six deaths during the voyage from Panama.

The revenue cutter Joe Lane sailed on the first instant, to take possession, in the name of the United States, of the island recently reported discovered about 1,590 miles west northwest of this port. Four expeditions have been fitted out for the same purpose, two of which have sailed. The sailing of the steamer Montana for Sitka is indefinitely postponed. The revenue cutter Lincoln has been ordered to report at San Francisco, for the purpose of carrying the proper Government officers to Russian America, to formally take possession of the territory, organize a revenue system, etc.

Salina, Kansas, Inundated.

SALINA, KANSAS, June 11.—A gentleman from Ellsworth reports that the town is completely inundated, the water being six feet deep. Several buildings floated away, and others were removed from their foundations. A large amount of lumber passed here, also portions of buildings. The water is four feet above the railroad track, and a good portion of the road between here and Ellsworth is submerged. The Smoky Hill is within its banks here, but it is impossible to travel either way. The water is higher than it has been since 1858.

Race for $7,500 at Boston.

BOSTON, June 11.—A race for $7,500 at Mystic Park to-day, between Blackstone Belle to harness and John Steward to saddle, three miles and repeat, was won by Belle in 7:58½ and 7:56.

Arrival of Emigrants at Montreal.

MONTREAL, June 11.—The emigrant return for the week shows that 1,678 emigrants arrived, only thirty of whom remained in Canada. The remainder proceeded to the Western States.

Memorial from Kentucky Freedmen.

LOUISVILLE, June 11.—A paper has been drawn up by some negroes of this State, to which signatures are being solicited, praying Congress to extend the right of suffrage and to testify in courts to negroes in Kentucky.

Remains of Ex-Gov. Jackson.

MEMPHIS, June 11.—The Enterprise passed up this morning with the remains of ex-Gov. Claiborne Jackson, of Missouri, on board, being taken to Saline county, Missouri, for interment.

National Horse Fair, Trenton, N. J.

TRENTON, N. J., June 11.—The National Horse Fair opened to-day. About one hundred horses were entered, including twenty-three double teams.

The Murderer O'Brien's Sentence Confirmed.

ALBANY, June 11.—The Court of Appeals has confirmed the sentence to execution of Jeremiah O'Brien, convicted of the murder of his mistress in a house of ill-fame, in New York.

Failure in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—A prominent stock operator failed this morning, it is said, for a large amount.

Navigation of Welland Canal.

ST. CATHERINES, June 11.—Navigation of the Welland Canal will be resumed to-morrow.

PRESIDENTIAL by-play is coming to be quite common, and as it developes the initial signs of public sentiment has a peculiar interest. It would not be a truthful record that did not state that General Grant is more frequently named than any one else. And this leads us to the fact that the Cincinnati Gazette, defending Gen. Grant against the aspersions of Theodore Tilton's Independent, says: "It is very well known by those who have conversed with Gen. Grant, that he has no sympathy with the democratic party, and if it so happens that he is a candidate for the Presidency, he will run as a Republican. Gen. Grant has not seen fit to express publicly his political views; but it is well known that he does not try to conceal from those who converse with him that his sympathies are decidedly with the Republican party; and furthermore, it will probably be found that he is quite as efficient in sustaining the principles of his party as those who assail him. Gen. Grant may or may not be a candidate for the Presidency; but it is due to him, and it is but just, to say that he is a Republican, and would indignantly decline a nomination from any other party."

OF iron-clads yet remaining unsold, numbering fifty-one in all, the largest ones are the Dictator, 3,300 tons; the Kalamazoo, 3,200 tons; the Passaconoway, 3,300; the Puritan, 3,300; the Quinsigamond, 3,200; the Shackamaxon, 3,200; and the Roanoke, 3,400. Perhaps it might be well to sell the whole of them at a good price, for better ones can be built with the money and the old ones would thus escape the danger of rusting and sticking in the mud of the Delaware river.

THE COURTS.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before Judge Mellon.

James and Jane McCune, indicted for keeping a disorderly house in South Pittsburgh, were acquitted. Mr. McCune was, however, convicted of being a professional fortune-teller. Sentence deferred.

Archy Lawson was tried for the larceny of a ten dollar bill from Mr. W. T. Logan, in the Diamond Market, some weeks since. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty, when the prisoner was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of one year.

Ernest Zimmerman, indicted for burglariously entering the Red Lion Hotel and stealing a pistol, was found guilty of the charge and remanded for sentence.

Charles Decker and Charles Carson, indicted for feloniously cutting a young man named Matthew Munn with a knife, were placed on trial. The offense was alleged to have been committed in Birmingham on the first of March last. A verdict of guilty was rendered against Decker, and Carson was acquitted.

Joseph St. Clair and James Pender were indicted for highway robbery. Mr. James H. Brown, of Franklin, the prosecuting witness, testified that on Monday night last he went into the bar room of the Scott House to take a drink, and seeing defendants there invited them to join him. During a conversation which ensued they informed Mr. Brown that they were connected with the steamer Dick Fulton. They afterwards volunteered to accompany him to the Red Lion Hotel, but upon arriving at the corner of Duquesne Way and Scott alley, they knocked him down, and beating him severely, robbed him of fifty dollars. St. Clair and Pender were arrested a few hours afterwards, and committed to jail in default of bail. Yesterday morning the case was taken before the Grand Jury, a true bill rendered and the defendants placed upon trial. The evidence being positive, the jury had no difficulty in agreeing upon a verdict of guilty, when they were remanded for sentence.

DISTRICT COURT—Before Judge Williams.

The jury in the case of Wm. A. McClurg vs. Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, rendered a verdict yesterday morning in favor of plaintiff for $1,027.

Peter S. Weaver vs. Adam Weaver and Wm. Rodgers, owners of the steamer Nevada. The plaintiff shipped a quantity of potatoes to Louisville during last winter on defendant's boat, which were damaged by frost while in transitu. A verdict was rendered for plaintiff for $155 12.

Catharine Coyle vs. Louis and Mary Siegrist. Action for slander. The plaintiff alleged that she had been employed at the house of defendants, in Manchester, and a pair of gaiter shoes being missing, she was charged by them with having committed the theft. It was further alleged that the plaintiff was engaged at the time to be married to a young man, who, upon learning that she was suspected of stealing, discarded her and married another woman. The jury found for plaintiff in the sum of $160.

There being no other cases ready for trial the jurors in attendance were discharged, and Court adjourned until September next.

Grand Commandary of Knights Templar.

The annual conclave of the Grand Commandary of Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, convened at Masonic Hall last evening. The attendance was large, nearly every district in the State being represented. The delegations from Washington and Lancaster counties numbered about fifty each. The proceedings to-day will be of a public character, and will be very interesting. At one o'clock, P. M., the Sir Knights will assemble at Masonic Hall for inspection, to be followed by a general parade. After passing over the route chosen, the procession will proceed to the Academy of Music, where an address will be delivered by Rev. Robert Pattison, and the Grand officers will be installed. The Templar Fatigue Dress, consisting of black cloth navy cap, with cross sword, belt, baldrick and white gloves will be worn, but it is probable that a number of Knights in full dress will be in the procession. The route will be as follows: Start from Masonic Hall on Fifth street; down Fifth to Wood; down Wood to Water; up Water to Smithfield; up Smithfield to Liberty; up Liberty to Wayne; down Wayne to Penn; down Penn to Irwin; up Irwin to Liberty, and along Liberty to the Academy of Music. It is expected that three or four hundred Knights will participate in the demonstration. In the evening at eight o'clock, a magnificent banquet will be served up at City Hall.

Medical Society of Pennsylvania.

The eighteenth annual session of the Medical Society of Pennsylvania will commence this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, in Lafayette Hall. The Rev. Dr. Jacobus will open the proceedings with prayer, and the Annual Address will be delivered by the President. A considerable number of delegates are expected to be in attendance. Among the questions of interest before the Society will be the propriety of extending the privilege of consultation to female practitioners of medicine. Several prize essays on medical topics will be presented.

The Promenade Concert and Soiree will be held at Lafayette Hall, this (Wednesday) evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. From the liberal arrangements made by the Committee having this in charge, we may expect a social re-union of the most elegant character. Nothing will be left undone to secure the pleasure of the guests in attendance. Promenading, conversation, music by a full orchestra, and a splendid banquet, will all combine to render the affair one long to be remembered.

We are requested to state that friends of the medical profession can procure tickets of admission by calling on Dr. H. T. Coffey, No. 63 Sixth street. Guests will enter the Hall on Fourth street. Carriages will set down towards Market and take up towards Wood.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—The jury empanneled by Coroner Clawson to investigate into the circumstances of the death of Timothy Carr, who died from the effects of wounds received by being run over on the Pennsylvania Railroad, assembled at the Mayor's office yesterday morning at ten o'clock, and after examining several witnesses, returned the following verdict: "That Timothy Carr came to his death on the 9th day of June, 1867, from the effects of injuries received by being accidentally run over on the 5th day of June, 1867, by engine No. 305, near the brewery switch of the Pennsylvania Railroad, in the Fifth ward." The deceased was a native of Ireland, was twenty-three years of age and unmarried. He boarded on Webster street.

MONUMENT ASSOCIATION.—The Executive Committee of the Soldiers' Monument Association held a meeting at City Hall, on Monday afternoon, but transacted no business of public importance, and adjourned to meet at the same place to-morrow afternoon, at three o'clock.

The German Catholic Central Verein—Second Day's Session.

The second day's session of the German Catholic Central Verein was held yesterday in St. Philomena's Hall. After the usual divine services, the session was opened with prayer by the Rev. Father Haller.

The reports of the several committees were read and adopted. These reports were mainly in relation to the constitutions of the several local societies who wished to be admitted to this Association, or Union of Benevolent Societies. Twenty-three new local societies were admitted, so that this Union combines in all, over one hundred different benevolent Catholic Societies, with an aggregate number of about 20,000 members.

At twelve o'clock, noon, the Convention adjourned until afternoon.

The Convention re-assembled at 2 o'clock, and was opened with religious services.

The first business in order was the election of officers of the Verein to serve for the ensuing year, which resulted in the re-election of the old officers by acclamation. The officers elect returned thanks for the honors conferred upon them, in appropriate speeches.

The Convention adjourned at five o'clock, until this morning at half past eight o'clock.

It is expected that the Convention will finish up the business before it by noon to-day. In the afternoon, delegates from abroad will visit several interesting localities about the city.

THE "P. R." AMONG THE "MUDLARKS."—Yesterday afternoon about six o'clock, two members of the "Mudlark" fraternity met at the corner of Liberty and Grant streets, when one accused the other of having picked his pocket. This the latter denied, when a quarrel ensued, and they determined to settle the matter by the rules of the "P. R." So great was their ire, they cared not for the law, and formed a ring on the public street, opposite the Grain Elevator. Seconds were appointed and a referee chosen. A large crowd of persons formed around the ring, and some citizens attempted to stop the fight, but they were repelled by a number of other members of the "Mudlark" fraternity, who were appointed to preserve "order." The contestants, who were stripped to the waist, fought three rounds, which lasted fifteen minutes. The "battle" finally resulted in a "draw," the parties agreeing to meet at some future time to settle the matter.

FIRE ALARM.—The contractors for the erection of the new fire alarm telegraph will commence operations to-day, and it is probable that it will be completed and in operation by the first of August. The posts have been prepared, and the first one will be raised this morning at the corner of Chestnut and Third streets.

GRAND LODGE OF THE I. O. OF G. T.—The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars of Pennsylvania, will be held in Mozart Hall, corner of Seventh and Grant streets, this city, commencing this morning at ten o'clock. A large number of delegates will be in attendance, and the meeting will be one of great interest.

FREIGHT VIA BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD.—A shipment of fifty hogsheads of sugar and fifty-five barrels of molasses, arrived in this city yesterday, by the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, having been transferred from the Baltimore and Ohio Road, at Bellair. This is the first shipment by that route, but others will soon follow.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—The inquest on the body of Timothy Carr, who died at the Mercy Hospital on Sunday, from the effect of injuries received on Wednesday, by being run over on Liberty street, by a locomotive, belonging to the Pennsylvania Railroad, was concluded yesterday, the jury rendering a verdict of accidental death.

DOUBLE TRACK.—The Oakland Passenger Railway Company are engaged laying a double track on the hill between Soho and the Oakland Station, which will be a great benefit to the residents along the line of that road.

Public Amusements.

THEATRICALS IN BIRMINGHAM.—The inhabitants of the south side are to be treated to a series of theatrical entertainments, at the Town Hall, Birmingham, by the Overington Combination Troupe, commencing on Thursday evening. The combination embraces the principal members of the Opera House, Academy of Music and Theater companies, and the entertainment will, therefore, be of an excellent character. The Orchestra will be under the direction of Mr. J. Hartel. Manager Overington promises to give the citizens of the Birminghams and their neighbors a good entertainment, and his enterprise should be rewarded by full houses.

MONUMENTAL FUND BENEFIT.—The Hawthorne Literary Society will give a musical and literary entertainment at Lafayette Hall, on Tuesday evening next, for the benefit of the Soldiers' Monument Association. The society have arranged a very attractive programme, and an interesting exhibition is promised.

MIKE LIPMAN'S SHOW.—This famous combination of equestrians, gymnasts and performing animals will exhibit in Allegheny on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next. This is the largest exhibition under canvass now traveling, and well worth seeing.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

[Before Alderman Lynch.]

LARCENY OF A COAT.

Patrick Gallagher, proprietor of a tavern on the corner of Water and First streets, lodged information yesterday against one Peter Woods, for larceny. He alleges that the defendant obtained boarding at his house on Monday, and departed very suddenly during the evening, taking with him a new coat belonging to a boarder, and valued at thirty-five dollars. The accused was arrested and committed to jail for a hearing to-day.

ASSAULT ON A BOY.

John Kalb was charged with assault and battery, on oath of John Kellogby. The parties reside in Birmingham, and deponent alleges that defendant attacked his minor son, aged ten years, who was sent to him on an errand, and beat and abused him. Kalb was arrested, and held to bail for a hearing this morning.

[Before Alderman McMasters.]

CHARGED WITH FALSE PRETENSES.

William Burke, of the firm of Burke & Glass, painters, made information before the above Alderman, charging John Smith with obtaining paint and putty to the amount of thirteen dollars under false pretenses. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

[Before Alderman Morrow.]

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.

Andrew Sweeney was arrested and held to bail by this magistrate for a hearing on a charge of malicious mischief, on oath of Thomas Goodman. The parties are cart drivers, and the prosecutor alleges that the defendant drove against his vehicle so as to break one of the shafts.

ARRESTED ON A PROCESS.

A man by the name of Emanuel Rough, living on the corner of West and First streets, was arrested yesterday by officer Larimer, on a process for abandonment, and committed to the county jail.

STATE ITEMS.

The Meadville Council have voted to adopt the Nicholson pavement in all future street improvements. The Board have levied a special tax of $28,000 for city purposes.

A stalk of rye raised on the farm of E. F. Landis, at Mount Sidney, East Lampeter township, Lancaster county, which measures nine feet and six inches in length, was exhibited in Lancaster last Saturday.

Margaret McIlwaine, a native of Ireland, and for upwards of thirty years a charge upon Westmoreland county, died at the Poor House, Greensburg, last week, aged about ninety years.

About four o'clock last Thursday morning, the gas barrel of the Dodworth well, on the line of the Tarr and Blood farms, exploded and took fire, communicating to the derrick and thence to the 8,000 barrel tank of Burrows, Kerr & Co. It contained about 500 barrels of oil, and although covered and supposed to be fire-proof, the oil ignited, and after burning for a time, the tank collapsed and shriveled up, and was rendered utterly worthless. The Titusville Herald says: This is the first instance of the destruction of an iron tank by fire. They have been considered fire-proof, and unless it is shown that there was some special defect in the construction of this one, its destruction will occasion general surprise, and impair confidence in their security against fire.

The following letter relative to the removal of the State capital from Lancaster to Harrisburg, dated "Lancaster, March 10, 1809," has just been published: "On Friday last, the Senate took up the bill for fixing the permanent seat of the government of the Commonwealth at Harrisburg. Two several motions were made to strike out Harrisburg. The first was for the purpose of inserting Lancaster, in lieu thereof; which was negatived, 12 to 13. Columbia was then proposed, and met the same fate. The question was then taken on the first section of the bill, as it had been reported, and negatived, 13 to 12; so the bill was lost, and the government remains at Lancaster."

EACH day seems to bring out some successive development of rascality in connection with the New Orleans swindle. It appears now that Cuthbert Bullitt, late United States Marshal, has had for two years past $250,000 of the proceeds of the cargo of the Grey Jacket, in his possession. He has been using this money in New York, but recently ordered it into the First National Bank, New Orleans, where it was when the bank closed. The case of the Grey Jacket has been recently decided by the United States Supreme Court in favor of the government, and Mr. Bullitt has been ruled into court for not paying over the money. Of course the government will lose the amount. As usual, his sureties are worthless.

A stupid fellow in New York was badly burned while bathing his body with benzine, the fluid taking fire from a lamp which the simpleton had burning in his room.

THE Rochester Express correspondent, writing from Albion, Orleans County, June 1, says: A very important decision was rendered by Justice Marvin in the Supreme Court in relation to National Banks. He decided that a National Bank is a foreign corporation; so that, whenever a citizen of this State has a claim against a National Bank at the time of issuing the summons, or at any time afterward, and before a judgment, he may attach the property of such bank and tie it up in the county. The question arose on a motion to set aside the attachment of the assets of the National Bank of Medina made by the County Treasurer before the bank had gone into liquidation.

Await the Advent of the Great Show

The Daily Commercial

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 1867.

THE COMMERCIAL is the largest daily paper in the State, and gives daily one-fourth more reading than any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that uses the telegraph liberally, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

NOT less than five thousand emigrants have landed at New York within the last four days. New York levies a tax of ten dollars a head on all emigrants, but it has no visible effect. Will those philosophers who would make it prohibitory please name the amount they think the taxes should be?

THE London Times sees no hope for Mexico but to "let the country gradually sink under the power of the United States." Without examining the matter too closely, one would suppose that the country that could successfully resist an invasion commenced by three great European powers, will be able to take care of herself. The United States do not want Mexico—but it may become necessary to give "moral support" to put her on her feet and a firm footing.

EVERYBODY in Pennsylvania knows that Mr. JOHN W. FORNEY is a modest man; that, in fact, it is modesty that has been the matter with him through life, and is likely to continue to be the chief obstacle to his getting on. But we question if many have dreamed of the extent to which this childlike characteristic has become chronic in Mr. FORNEY. An indication we find in one of his London letters, wherein, referring to "Mr. BRIGHT and his friends," he thus expresses himself: "I have never experienced rarer pleasure than in listening to them. How well they understand our parties! It was an agreeable surprise to find my humble name almost familiar to them." How perfectly delicious that is!

THE publication of MAXIMILIAN's address will be very apt to elevate him in the estimation of mankind in general—baring always such as are not enamored of the French Emperor, against whom he does not hesitate to hurl maledictions, the like which no King or Emperor in these latter days has been compelled to listen to under similar circumstances. There is a solemnity mingled with a sense of irreparable yet deliberate injury pervading every word of the address; and when he says, "Then will NAPOLEON III. be covered with shame from head to foot," the language does not rely for applause on the dramatic effect with which it is so highly seasoned. The publication of this address will produce no small commotion in Europe. Pronounced as is the malediction against the Emperor of the French in the name of "my august brother," the Emperor of Austria, it cannot be ignored. Nor is MAXIMILIAN himself so insignificant a person as to be beneath notice. But it is the recognized fitness of the address that will make it as difficult for the Frenchman to pass it by as to give it such recognition as doubtless he will be prompted to bestow.

THERE is a class of advertisements which, while pretending to compassionate the follies and indiscretions of youth and to provide remedies for the diseases occasioned by them, are really calculated to encourage the vicious and even perhaps to reduce the virtuous and unsuspecting into the practice of the most pernicious vices. This class of advertisements should be regarded as highly injurious to public morals, offering, as they virtually do, immunity to licentious habits which both corrupt society and entail disease, infamy and death on many individuals. Respectable journals should reject them from their columns altogether. It is both an insult and a danger, to thrust daily or weekly before the virtuous sons and daughters of a family, lists of all the loathsome diseases that vice produces, each accompanied with its infallible cure and often with the advertiser's assurance that it is a preventative as well as cure. The readers of the COMMERCIAL find no such advertisements in its columns, thousands of dollars worth of such advertising has been declined at this office. Self-respect, as well as respect for our readers, and regard for good morals, makes us willing to forego pecuniary profits from such a business.

THE MEAT QUESTION AGAIN.

The recent exposure in the COMMERCIAL of the frauds perpetrated on the public by certain butchers, has, as was expected, caused a great commotion, not only among dealers but consumers. And yet the whole story has by no means been told, as to the enormity of the frauds and extent of the traffic in diseased cattle, hogs and sheep. The investigation understood to be in progress, is reported to have unearthed transactions of certain meat dealers of the most revolting character. And yet this thing has been going on for a long time, and still continues. It must not be understood that all the butchers doing business in the Diamond market, and in the Allegheny City market are anything else than honest dealers. Probably a majority of them can be relied on for the quality of the meats they sell. But there are "black sheep" among them, and these can be detected by any consumer that will take the time to inquire into the facts. It is not our business to draw the line—that would seem to belong to the courts. Until there is a proper inspector appointed, and a legal sifting takes place, the consumer must be his own judge of the meat he buys. An investigation would, no doubt, result in a total change throughout the markets. But the consuming public must keep a sharp lookout among certain meat shops located throughout the city.

Among other provable facts that we have heard of within the last few days are the following: At one time, among many others of a similar kind, there were unloaded from the trains at one of our stock yards over one hundred and twenty-five head of hogs, all crippled, and some of them in a dying condition. These hogs were bought at a nominal price and every one killed by the purchaser and sold for food.

At another time a steer with a cancer on his neck as large as a half bushel, and terribly offensive at a long distance, was purchased by a butcher, dressed and sold to consumers. This fact leaking out prosecution by a certain party was about to be instigated against the butcher, when it is said he had it "hushed up;" rumor says, with a $50 greenback.

A sick beef lay for some time at one of the stock yards, unable to rise, moaning all the time most piteously. This animal was bought by a butcher, dressed and hung up in the stock yard, and the superintendent of the yard, on ordering its removal at once, was attacked by the butcher with a knife, but the superintendent made a vigorous counter attack with a club and drove the butcher out of the yard. The superintendent returning ordered his employees to have the foul stuff removed to a soap boiling establishment.

Last week, in one of our yards, a lamb was purchased by a butcher for the sum of fifty cents. The animal was crippled and diseased throughout. The purchaser dressed it at the same time he dressed another lamb, in a better condition. The butcher took from the good lamb the caul, with it dressed the fifty cent lamb, and sold the two together to a respectable class of purchasers at the full price of mutton.

Another butcher in Allegheny City has been dealing extensively in pork and sausages. He is known to make a practice of buying at the Stock Yards crippled hogs. The injured parts of the animal he chops into sausages, and the remainder he sells as roasts, steaks, etc.

A certain butcher in East Liberty has been somewhat noted for purchasing hogs and killing them for his customers. He is not over particular as to the kind he kills, but sometimes prefers those that he can buy low—no matter whether they have broken legs or are sick unto death. Not long since he killed one, which at the time was barely breathing, so nearly dead was he, from injuries and exhaustion. A citizen of the place happening to be near, proposed to the butcher that as the animal was unable to squeal while the sticking process was going on, it would sound better if some one should assist the poor animal. The butchering operation was commenced, and the citizen stood by and imitated, in the most perfect manner, it is said, the squealing, and thus did his part to enable the sick porker to make his exit respectably. The next morning when the meat made its appearance in the market, it went off readily to first-class customers.

WHO HINDERS RECONSTRUCTION?

That, after such great and long continued troubles as our country has had, some serious difficulties should be encountered in restoring it to a healthy condition, is not all surprising. Nor is it otherwise than might be reasonably expected that the firm friends of the Union should be more ready to notice those difficulties than they are who have been recently in open hostility to it. The friends of the Union are also naturally more concerned to have it restored on just principles and in a manner that promises stability and peace, and their higher estimate of it makes them more cautious, while the opinions of persistent enemies, in relation to the process of its restoration are entitled to little deference.

One cause of the difficulty experienced by the Government in adjusting the relations of the contending parties in this case is that there were not and could not be any treaty stipulations in the closing of hostilities. The insurgents were simply subdued and disarmed. There was no power to make any terms or any engagements in their behalf. The Government had both their interests and its own to attend to, and both its own action and theirs to direct. Its exactions, however just, are opposed to their disposition, and on it rests the responsibility of enforcing on them the duty of good citizens, and at the same time the unavoidable odium springing from their aversion to it.

Another difficulty has arisen, and still exists, from the abuse of the clemency which has distinguished the policy of the Government toward the insurgents. Had they been subjects of a foreign power, it would have made no difference how much they may have hated our Government, after the war was closed, as long as the treaty stipulations were observed. But being citizens of our Government, in process of restoration to their privileges as such, the manifestations of an insubordinate and hostile disposition, especially in their State organizations and policy, rendered unavoidable some modification of the plans of restoration dictated by clemency, and the infusion of some new elements of stringency, adapted to the disposition of the people which was seen to exist. This is the true explanation of the reason for the several changes of policy, on the part of the Government, and for the demand of additional guaranties for the orderly demeanor of the people who have been in rebellion. It was impossible to declare any measure or plan of reconstruction to be a finality, until it was seen to be a successful one. This could not be seen, while the Southern people were exhibiting their organized opposition. And hence the necessity of incorporating more stringent elements into the policy of restoration, each change introducing more of Government authority, and leaning less to the volition of the Southern people.

The same course of reasoning and illustration might be applied to the delay in the restoration of the seceded States to their normal relations with the Union. The intemperate haste, amounting fairly to a scramble for admission to Congress, almost before the disarmed rebels had reached their homes, was accompanied by evidences of a disposition and purpose, that rendered hesitation on the part of the Government a matter of the plainest prudence and propriety. This, again, drew out other demonstrations which dictated further delays. And so two years and more have passed, in which has been verified the saying often uttered in the early part of this period, that the conflict of policies was but a continuation of the conflict of arms.

It requires no prophetic power to foresee that this contest can be terminated only as the other was, by the submission of the wrong to the right. The Government cannot surrender its prerogatives to the governed. The difficulties, the delays, the vexations attending the efforts for restoration, are not chargeable on the Government, but on the secession States themselves. That delay aggravates the unfriendly feeling may be true, and probably is. But still the same reasons that controlled the action of the Government for six years, must make it firm and faithful now—the salvation of the Union and the peace and welfare of the whole country.

THE returns of the Democratic primary elections in Westmoreland county indicate the nomination of Johnson, for Prothonotary, Wilson, Treasurer, Blerer, for Commissioner, McCabe, for Auditor, and Miller, for Poor House Director. The vote for Clerk of the Courts is very close.

THE ex-rebel General Longstreet has written a letter on reconstruction, in which he favors the military reconstruction bill, and declares that the South has no interest with the Democratic party, because of its opposition to negro suffrage. The letter excites considerable comment in administrative quarters.

AT the last session of the Academy of Sciences, says the Courier du Havre, of May 21, M. Delaunay read a paper, by M. Flammarion, on the subject of a recent change in the moon's surface. A crater well defined and perfectly well known to astronomers has disappeared within a year, and its place is now marked by a large white spot in the middle of a plain. It is the first time that any change in the moon's surface has been noticed. M. Chacomer made a like observation, which confirms that of M. Flammarion.

THE Spanish Loan which has been attempted to be put on the French market is meeting with peculiar obstacles from the Emperor. The French Government, from regard for the interests of its subjects, demands, before allowing any new stock to be quoted in Paris, that the Spanish Government shall not only repair the injury done to the holders of Passive Deferred and other stocks, but also indemnify the holders of its railway shares for the enormous losses they have sustained.

THE ladies of a church in Cincinnati, a few days ago, gave a festival. The weather was warm and ice cream in order. When it came everybody thought it had a peculiar flavor—a cross between paragoric, Perry Davis' pain killer and Drake's bitters, whereupon the precious stuff was withdrawn. No explanation was given for the remarkably queer taste of the ice cream first served, but the generally accepted theory was that the manufacturer, fearful that his cream might produce an injurious effect if eaten during the prevailing hot weather, had adopted the new and rather novel idea of flavoring it with paregoric, to assuage any pain that might be induced by eating it.

THE New York Citizen makes an elaborate defense—or explanation—of Mr. Greeley's participation in the proceedings which ended in the bailing of Mr. Davis. It says Mr. Greeley did not volunteer, but earnestly desired not to be urged to go upon the bond. He did so, however, to rob the proceedings of the party character which it might otherwise have. The idea that Mr. Greeley was animated by sympathy for Davis is repudiated. It is difficult to see in what way this explanation improves Mr. Greeley's position. Such elaborate defenses and explanations would seem to amount to a concession that it was a bad business—a proceeding which Mr. Greeley might have escaped had he so chosen.

GEN. BUFORD, one of the special commissioners to investigate the Fort Phil. Kearney massacre, after a full and very complete investigation, says there is no necessity for an Indian war, and there would be none if the Indians were protected from the rapacity and rascality of frontier settlers, whose interests are to bring on the war, and supply our armies with subsistence at exorbitant prices. In fact, the present war which is upon us is nothing but a raid upon the Treasury of the United States by the frontiersmen and army contractors. He says the employees of the Union Pacific Railroad are also advocates of war, because the transportation of troops and passengers would put into the treasury of the company large sums of money.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

David R. Williams, of the firm of Beach & Williams, lumber dealers, was killed on Friday evening, on Wabash avenue, Chicago, by being thrown from a buggy by a runaway team. John R. Wicks, of the firm of Wicks & Leeher, sash and blind manufacturers, and the driver of the vehicle, both received injuries supposed to be fatal, although they are still alive.

A prize fight took place just outside the corporation limits of Newport, Kentucky, Sunday, between two Cincinnati roughs, named Wm. McCarthy and John Galt. Eight rounds were fought in forty minutes, when the authorities appeared on the ground, and the fight terminated. Both of the principals were arrested. The affair grew out of a difficulty which occurred between the two parties about a week since, and which could not be settled amicably.

The Limerick Chronicle states that thirteen out of seventeen Fenian prisoners in the jail of that county have voluntarily tendered to the British authorities their services as informers!

The Wheeling Register tells of a young man who for some weeks had been wasting away to a skeleton, owing to mysterious loss of blood. On awaking every morning, he found a fresh puncture on some part of his body, from which blood had been drawn. He at length became convinced that a vampyre had been sucking his blood, and removed to another boarding-house. Since the removal he is recovering his health—for there were no bed-bugs there!

Says a correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Oberlin: "About one thousand students are at present attending the Institution, of whom some four hundred are ladies. One-third are black. Some of the finest looking girls are black, or rather yellow. They would make the eyes and teeth of a Kentuckian water to look at them, and he 'would give a thousin' in hard money' to have one of these wenches (or colored ladies, as they are called here,) in his clutches. Little or no amalgamation takes place, as the result of social equality."

They are enjoying a sensation in Liverpool, where a youth of seventeen, disguised as a young lady, has, by the connivance of the lady principal teacher, been residing for a year past in a fashionable girl's boarding school, patronized exclusively by the aristocracy.

Last week a man was being tried before Judge Mitchell, in Washington, D. C., for the crime of horse stealing; the jury had just retired to find their verdict, when an auction bell was heard announcing the sale of some bank property; everybody being interested immediately left the court room, and the prisoner walked out with the crowd and left for parts unknown.

The master of the raft Nonpariel is reported to have said that he should cross the Atlantic in fifteen days. At the end of four days he has got as far as Quarantine. He has still eleven days to make good his promise. Probably he expects to make very fast time when he gets outside. A cowardly sailor, who thought the trip not likely to be a pleasant or safe one, has retired from the companionship of his shipmates—in a word, has deserted. The Nonpariel is understood to be waiting to fill her compliment of men. The proposed rafting of the ocean at first looked like a foolish venture. It now looks like a knavish impossibility.

Senator Bennett, of the New York Legislature, in a letter on the enlargement of the canals of that State, says that the aggregate of tolls on the Erie Canal up to September 30, 1862, was $59,203,810 62, and the expenses $52,391,101 85, giving a net profit of $6,772,804 81 over and above cost of canal, interest on loans, repairs and running expenses.

The income returns in Indiana for 1866 show a falling off of 70 per cent. from the year before.

There is now in bond in the first district of Cincinnati 3,838,120 gallons of whisky, equal to 85,000 barrels, the tax on which, if it could be collected, which it cannot, would be $7,676,240. There are five barrels of whisky in store in the district to one of flour.

PERSONAL.

—There is a bit of romance connected with the great Derby race in England, which took place a fortnight ago. A young lady was engaged to be married to Mr. Chaplin, but twenty-four hours before the proposed wedding, eloped with the Marquis of Hastings. At the Derby Mr. Chaplin's horse won, and the Marquis of Hastings in consequence lost £120,000—nearly three-quarters of a million dollars currency. The Marquis is now "hard up," and Mr. Chaplin has had his revenge.

—P. M. Brown, the old man in Dayton, Ohio, who went without eating for many days recently, professing to be fed by the spirits, died recently. He was eighty-four years old, and eighty-four days was the number of days he lived without food, a coincidence which the spirits claim the benefit of.

—The Paris correspondent of the London Post, writing on the 28th of May, says: It seems to have been the intention of the Emperor to get together in Paris during this Exhibition period all the crowned heads of Europe and Asia, and it is said that a feeler was thrown out at Washington for inviting the President of the United States. All the sovereigns of the earth have replied yes, except the Emperor of China.

—The Hon. Sam. Galloway is being favorably talked of as candidate for Governor of Ohio by many of the Republican papers. The Dayton Journal is in favor of him, and is rather enthusiastic that way.

—Senator John Sherman, in company with Mr. Kasson, ex-Member of Congress from Iowa, and General Morrow, of Michigan, arrived in Paris on the 10th of May from London. The Senator left again on a tour through Holland, Prussia and Austria. He will return here about the middle of next month to meet his brother, the Lieutenant General, who will come up from Marseilles. He expects to have a talk with Count Bismarck at Berlin, and to witness the coronation of the Emperor of Austria as King of Hungary and Pesth. Mr. Kasson, whose mission as plenipotentiary of the Postoffice Department has reached him provided with the President's signature, is carrying on negotiations with the French Postmaster General.

—Hon. E. B. Washburne has been so much benefitted by the mineral waters of Homburg, (near Frankfort-on-the-Main,) that he has concluded to remain there until July. He has now the company of Governor Curtin, of Pennsylvania, who arrived there last week in very poor health, from Italy. J. H. Bowen, Esq., of Chicago, has arrived here and taken charge of the fitting up of the American school house and cottage in the Exposition.

—The present elegantly fitted out building used as a United States Court House, in Charleston, was once the residence of the celebrated John Rutledge, the first Chief Justice of the United States. He was called the Dictator of South Carolina in the Revolution, and contributed more than any other southern man to the success of the Revolutionary war. There is a tradition that when that city fell in 1781, Mr. Rutledge, being Dictator, retired, and the iron railings in front of this building were draped in mourning by the rebel ladies of Carolina during the night of the first day of British military occupation. How strange events turn round. The building occupied by the very man who insisted on the slave trade clause for the constitution as a pre-requisite to the assent of South Carolina to the constitution of 1789 is now used by the Government which has abrogated and effaced that clause of the constitution. Mr. Edward Rutledge, brother of John, lived in a magnificent residence opposite the present United States Court House. He was the chief cause, as readers of history will remember, of causing to be struck out of the original draft of the declaration of independence the eloquent denunciation of the slave trade, which, for brilliancy, energy and force, is not perhaps surpassed by any language used by the most eloquent abolitionists of the present day.

—A Southern widow, the niece of a former Northern President of the United States, and at one time a resident of the White House, has lately received from a benevolent gentleman of Boston, the means to keep herself and children from absolute starvation. All means of support, her personal labor included, had failed, and seeing an account of his virtues in a newspaper, she applied to him, an utter stranger, not unworthily nor unsuccessfully.

OHIO ITEMS.

John McManus, sent to the Ohio Penitentiary four years ago from Medina county, for horse stealing, took leave of that institution on Thursday, without consulting the authorities. He was employed outside the walls at the time. His term would have expired on Saturday, and then he would have been entitled to a full suit of clothes and five dollars in money.

Horace Haines, who was convicted of the murder of Hiram Sutliffe, in 1854, and was returned from the Ohio penitentiary where he had served nearly thirteen years of a life term, on a writ of error to Ashtabula county, Ohio, was discharged under a nolle prosequi, on Friday last. It was found that it would be impossible to convict him on a new trial, of even manslaughter. Many of the witnesses were beyond reach, and some were dead.

Joseph McConnell, one of the founders of McConnellsville, Morgan county, Ohio, died in that place a few weeks since. He was born in Franklin county, Pa., March 14th, A. D. 1793, from whence, at the age of 17 or 18 years, he emigrated to Muskingum county, Ohio, in 1810, and previous to his death was the survivor of his four brothers, who at an early day, had emigrated to the State of Ohio. In the war of 1812, with one exception, the McConnell brothers, including Joseph, served in defense of the citizens and soil of their adopted State, with credit to themselves. The father of these five brothers was a citizen of Pennsylvania, and served as an officer under Washington, in some of the most sanguinary battles of the revolutionary war for national freedom.

MR. WM. R. STONE, an extensive produce commission merchant in Chicago, has failed, and made an assignment. Heavy losses, incident to the high prices and subsequent collapse, is the cause. It is added that his assets are $80,000 and liabilities $60,000.

WE learn from the Troy Whig that the Rensselaer Iron Works, Bessemer Steel Works, Fort Edward and Hudson Blast Furnaces, heretofore doing business as separate firms, have been consolidated and are now owned and operated by the one firm of John A. Griswold & Co., composed of John A. Griswold, Erastus Corning, Sr., Erastus Corning, Jr., and John F. Winslow. The firm will have a capacity of producing annually: 20,000 tons pig iron; 15,000 tons Bessemer steel; 35,000 to 40,000 tons of steel and iron rails; and 8,000 to 10,000 tons of merchant iron. This is a combination of financial strength and mechanical enterprise which promises the most stupendous results in the future.

PETERSON'S

CORN AND BUNION OINTMENT,

Is not only a relief, but a radical cure for those pests of the feet. Mr. J. W. Barker, the Market street Dry Goods Merchant, says Peterson's Ointment removed the pain almost immediately, and ultimately removed the corns from his feet.

Try it, and Relief is certain.

CONSUMPTION CURABLE.

Its icy hand falls alike upon youthful innocence and hoary-headed age. Some of the prominent symptoms are Cough, Expectorant, Shortness of Breath, Irritation about the Lungs and Chest, darting Pains in the Side and Back, Emaciation, and a general negative condition of the whole system.

The Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON'S Prepared Prescription for the cure of CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all THROAT and LUNG AFFECTIONS, has now been in use over ten years with the most marked success.

The Remedy, prepared under Mr. Wilson's personal supervision, also a pamphlet containing the original Prescription, with full and explicit directions for preparation and use, together with a short history of his case, may be obtained of the following reliable Druggists.

JOSEPH FLEMING,

cor. Market street and the Diamond, Pittsburgh.

REDDING'S
RUSSIA SALVE,
[ESTABLISHED 1806.]
PRICE 25 CENTS PER BOX,
Is the Universal Remedy for Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Bruises, and all Flesh Wounds; for Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Piles, and Old Scrofulous Sores, Eruptions, Blotches, Salt Rheum, and all Cutaneous Diseases.
REDDING'S RUSSIA SALVE is a purely Vegetable Ointment, made from the very best materials, and combines in itself greater HEALING powers than any other preparation before the public. Its timely application has been the means of saving thousands of valuable lives, of relieving a vast amount of suffering, and wherever used, has proved itself in reality A BOON TO SUFFERING HUMANITY.
Sixty Years' Universal Use of the Russia Salve is a Noble Guarantee of its Incomparable Virtues as a Healing Ointment.
The very large sale of REDDING'S RUSSIA SALVE, during the past sixty years, has given rise to hundreds of unworthy imitations, but throughout all opposition, the RUSSIA SALVE maintains its supremacy as a reliable preparation, having a steady and permanent sale, and never deteriorating in quality, by age or climate, and is sold to dealers at a price enabling them to realize a generous profit by its sale. For sale by all Druggists and Apothecaries.

FILES! FILES!
THE AUBURN FILE WORKS
AUBURN, NEW YORK,
Would call the attention of manufacturers and those using Files and Rasps to the superior article of HAND CUT FILES, which they are now making from the best quality of Cast Steel, consisting of Flat, Hand, Mill, Saw, Round, Half Round, Square, Taper Saw Files, Horse Rasps, and all other kinds, which are in no respect inferior to any now made.
It accords neither with our taste or our principle to assert that our Files have never been approached by any other manufacturer. The Files must speak for themselves, and those who wish to purchase largely are sufficiently wise to accept the evidence of the files rather than the assertion of the manufacturers.
Your orders may be left with T. H. RICHARDS, Esq., 30 Fifth street, Pittsburgh, where samples of some of the principal kinds may be examined and prices obtained. Your orders will be carefully executed at the manufactory, and warranted to give satisfaction or Files returned.
We have permission to refer to the Pittsburgh Novelty Works, who are now using our work to their entire satisfaction. Under date of November 26, 1867, they say:
"The files give general satisfaction in regard to "temper and cut. The only objection we find is, "they are cut too fine for our use. A coarser cut "would suit us better. Please remember this when "we send another order."
Also of May 6th, 1867, enclosing draft for $183 73.
"Your Files give satisfaction, and you have per"mission to use our name in regard to their "quality."
Please call and examine samples before placing your orders.

IE INDIAN WAR.

rders and Depredations.

APPALLING LIST.

ral Augur's Expedition.

Plan of Operations.

ODFREY'S RANCHE, COL., May 31, '67.

have arrived at Godfrey's Ranche, 140 east of Denver, thus far safe and sound. ch has been recounted of Indian doings e absolutely shudder at our close prox- to them. For the edification of your s we give you a list of the various mur- d depredations lately committed by the s.

he 19th instant, two men named Wm. and Martin Kannon were killed and twelve miles from Cottonwood Springs. same time fifty head of horses and fifty mules were stampeded by Indians, who camped in the canons in the neighbor- f Fort McPherson, in open defiance of ope.

he 23d inst. John West, formerly an em- of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s line, John Pe- , a native of Switzerland, and an un- hunter, after a desperate fight, were near a station called Big Laramie, situ- x miles from Fort Saunders, Colorado. dians on this raid captured one hundred ty head of cattle, but a party of ranch- eil armed, started in pursuit and suc- in retaking one hundred head. The cit- hased them about twenty miles and were times nearly within rifle range. After hours' chase the ranchmen retraced steps, while the Indians, twenty-five in r, started for a lonely ranch further he 24th instant, a mounted courier rode Sedgwick and informed Gen. Hunt, the nder, that nineteen Indians had made a n a white man's camp in a ravine near eek and had killed and scalped three Captain Mix and his cavalry were in rsuit. The Captain did not see any. me day the same party of Indians made on Rielette's ranch and ran off four steers r horses.

he 25th, nine miles above Julesburg, Ser- Maniigan, of the squad of men detailed ie 30th infantry, to protect the graders Union Pacific Railroad, and two citizens, whom was named Wade, were killed les above Julesburg, and were most in- sly and horribly mutilated. The bodies ecovered and decently buried with appro- ceremonies.

he same day General Potter states that n Indians rode up to within fifty yards of near which was stationed a detachment ntry, and ran off three mules, manifest- greatest contempt for the soldiers by ing their breech clouts.

he 26th, twenty-one head of stock were opposite Beauvais ranch, or old Califor- ssing. Some soldiers were near who n them. The fire was returned; several s were slightly wounded, and one mor-

as supposed by some that there were but it is only by the greatest difficulty te information can be procured. Those ted in the Platte Valley railroad con- e and superintendents will use their ut- o prevent details from being given to the . Had we remained satisfied with what of the war we gained at Omaha, we have given the public nothing but vague, sfactory reports. Nothing was definitely "They say that they have had a slight with Injins, but you know there reliance in these kind of reports, you perhaps two or three have been wounded; ls, and nothing more."

orrespondent, to be able to give reliable must be in the field, must witness what o record, that he may have something le to report. He must be also disinter- that he may give facts as they actually ed. Such has been our case; we went to ld for that special purpose. We have ed what we have seen, unbiased by any eration.

ranches that still stand at intervals of ten ive miles are barricaded after the most red manner out West in the Indian coun- Each ranche has its little arsenal and at any moment for use. The place from I indite this letter is a fair sample of bar- d abodes. It is owned by an old settler l Hallen Godfrey, a grim old chap, deter- and obstinate. There are five graves his ranche. The head-boards bear simple epitaph, "Killed by Indians." each of these men killed, five Indians bit the dust—sent to their account by the y rifle of "Old Godfrey." "Old Wicked," is termed by Indians, is not troubled by Cheyennes and Sioux much now-a-days. ery name is a source of terror. In his e are about twenty rifles, always loaded. assengers to Denver must perforce stop at ey's for supper. This supper is a square a perfect one, and like other meals on ains it costs $1 50. Several Indians passed repassed within a respectable distance of place the last week. Depredations have committed in the vicinity, but Godfrey's e will be undisturbed.

e Indians are here and everywhere. Our ry might as well pursue that phantom alled the "Flying Dutchman" as pursue biquitous hawks of the prairie. The red of the West are unencumbered. They no wigwams—no camp equipage to carry them. For the severe loss entailed upon by the destruction of their villages, they make up by pouncing upon the trembling rant and the trader's trains. The Indian glut himself until full, and when that time s, i. e., when emigrants shall cease to cross lains, they will [illegible] off, like the surgeon's ly leech.

THE WAY T[illegible] FIGHT INDIANS.

e only way [illegible]ght Indians, at least the x and Cheyennes, is to permit five hun- prairie settlers—men who have lived on lains from boyhood—men who are skilled l the devious ways of the savage, to go them. These men can readily found in the States of Kansas, Ne- ka, and that portion of the Territory Colorado that juts out on the plains, ward of the Rocky mountains. For services, the captured ponies and other ies will prove sufficient recompense. he government but proclaim that for the of economy, and a speedy solution of the n question, it is willing that Western nteers should engage in the task, and a sand would leap into the saddle without l or sounding cavalry bugle. Their incen- to the self-imposed task would be the wail- of Western mothers for their first born, ig, bearded men moaning for their sons, ers sighing for outraged sisters, ring in servile bondage in the vams of their vile captors. No dlin sentimentality, we opine, ld find room in their bosoms. Everything ld be forgotten, unheard, save the furious for revenge! When these men have chas- the Indians after their own fashion, let ern missionaries mingle with the subdued conquered tribes, and complete the good k. If any Indians were left, after the rds of the destroying avengers, the mission- s doubtless, would find eager listeners to the pel, and the Christian shepherds willing s. The Gospel would be as a balm of ad to the stricken ones, and the nomadic of Ishmael would become civilized citizens he great republic.

MER IN PLATTE VALLEY—DOUGLAS RANCHE.

mer on the plains—a drizzling, slushy, st snow. The ground is covered four inches . A fierce norwester is blowing, sending a ly sensation through all humanity. Nearly first of June, and in these cold, arctic re- s, a human being remaining one hour out- rs, without any exercise, would freeze to h. Charming country! Were we suffering the fierce nents of the unmentionable regions, we uld never wish to exchange for Omaha and Platte Valley. If it is so extremely cold in mer, what sort of a country is it in midwin- Great Jupiter Olympus! It must be worse n Iceland.

CHIVINGTON, OF SAND CREEK.

his Western giant, who has achieved such unenviable reputation in New England, and h an enviable name throughout the West, we ountered in our travels in the Indian coun- He is a giant in name, as well as a perfect lah in stature. He is a ponderous, muscular g, straight as an arrow, graceful as an llo, majestic as a king, dignified as a judge. stands six feet four inches in his moccasins, weighs two hundred and forty pounds. h, sublime forehead, dark hair, sparsely ttered over his head and slightly sil- d, black, brilliant eyes, a full, mag- rial, eagle face, prominent nose, a man of at force and dignity, commanding in appear- e, and calculated to strike the ordinary man h admiration. His appearance has more of judge than the executioner; a gentleman n the ruffian. We could never have believed t he was the author of the sanguinary affair Sand creek as we saw it delineated. There st have been an upright motive, a stronger trolling power than the people of the East re aware of, to urge him to utter the com- nd to his soldiers that sealed the doom of the pless beings at Sand creek. He is now about y-five years old; was formerly a Methodist nister, and preached for the space of two rs in Omaha.

GENERAL AUGUR'S INDIAN EXPEDITION.

Major General C. C. Augur has at last suc- et orders from General Sherman. He started the Plains last evening, although it was re- rted that he had gone sooner, which was a stake. He goes direct to Fort Sedgwick, and out the 15th of June will start from thence to ramie. From Fort Laramie the whole expe- ion, which will be composed of about 1,500 fantry, 800 cavalry, and 250 Pawnee scouts, ll go to Fort Phil. Kearney; thence to Fort no, Montana, and the head waters of the llowstone, attacking hostile tribes wherever und, and destroying their villages and prop- y when surprised. In fact, all indications e for a vigorous campaign. He has ordered artermasters' supplies sufficient for three onths, and means to haul them.—St. Louis w.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—CANCER—The days of "brilliant operations" are no more. The discovery of Holloway's Ointment dispensed with the necessity of the knife, which frequently endangered the life of the patient. Thousands of females have been cured of cancer in the breast by the medicating action of the Ointment, and their lives spared to their families. The salve follows the cancer in its tortuous winding, and imperceptibly but thoroughly and painlessly eradicates it from the system. The Pills cleanse and purify the blood. Sold by all Druggists.

JULES JARED'S
"EMAIL DE PARIS,"
THE NEW
BEAUTIFIER OF THE SKIN

Testimonials from Celebrated Ladies:

The secret of beautifying the Skin being known only to Messrs. Jared & Rene, they honestly state that it differs from all other preparations. It gives to the most harsh and freckled skin both the color and texture of polished ivory, removing all discolorations, whether appearing as freckles, tan, morphew, moth or black-worm specks, and is especially successful in smoothing out the marks left by small-pox.

The agents of "Email de Paris" most confidently submit to the public the earnest endorsements of such distinguished ladies as

Signora Ristori, M'lle Felicita Vestvali, Miss Maggie Mitchell, Mrs. D. P. Bowers, Lucille Western, Mad. Ponisi, Mrs. Emma Waller, Lucy Rushton, Noemie de Marguerittes, Miss Agnes Perry,

And many others, whose high standing in the profession gives the stamp of truthfulness to their intelligent and genuine approval.

The beautiful Lucille Western says:

I find that the "Email" produces all the brilliancy of rouge and lily white, with the great and peculiar advantages of perfect harmlessness. It really adds to the softness and beauty of the skin.

The Magnificent Vestvali says:

I have suffered so much from the various white lotions, &c., which my theatrical profession obliges me to use, that I consider it a perfect benefaction to find a preparation which gives the necessary whiteness to the skin, and leaves the skin cool and smooth.

Miss Maggie Mitchell says:

I have tried the skin beautifier "L'Email de Paris," and found that it instantly imparts a natural bloom and freshness to the complexion.

"Jared Email de Paris" is used as a delicate beautifier of the skin for Theater, Saloon or Ball Room, by the most refined and scrupulous ladies; producing all the beautifying effects of rouge and lily white, without their vulgar glare or injury to the skin.

Sold by all first-class Druggists, Perfumers and Ladies' Hair Dressers.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH, PA., (late Pittsburgh Trust Company,) Capital $500,000, paid in, with privilege to increase to $1,000,000.

The Pittsburgh Trust Company having organized under the Act to provide a National Currency, under the title of the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH, would respectfully offer its services for the collection of Notes, Drafts, Bills of Exchange, &c.; receive money on deposit, and buy and sell Exchange on all parts of the country.

The success which has attended the Pittsburgh Trust Company since its organization in 1852, will, we believe, be a sufficient guarantee that business entrusted to the new organization will receive the same prompt attention.

Having a very extensive correspondence with Banks and Bankers throughout the country, we believe we can offer unusual facilities to those who do business with us.

The business will be conducted by the same officers and directors.

VEGETABLE AMBROSIA IS THE MIRACLE OF THE AGE.

Gray headed people have their locks restored by it to the dark, lustrous, silken tresses of youth, and are happy! Young people with light, faded or red hair, have these unfashionable colors changed to a beautiful auburn, and rejoice! People whose heads are covered with dandruff and humors, use it, and have clean coats and clear and healthy scalps! Bald headed veterans have the remaining locks tightened, and the bare spots covered with a luxuriant growth of hair, and dance for joy! Young gentlemen use it because it is richly perfumed! Young ladies use it because it keeps their hair in place! Everybody must and will use it, because it is the cleanest and best article in the market! For sale by Druggists generally. Price $1 00 per bottle.

CITY MATTERS.

ANOTHER MURDER.

Homicide in Allegheny--A Young Man Shot by a Companion--Coroner's Investigation.

On Monday night, between ten and eleven o'clock, a young man James Goldrich was shot in Mr. Dennis Keller's wholesale liquor store, No. 234 Ohio street, Allegheny, by Thomas McFarland, a companion, and injured so severely that death ensued in a few hours afterwards. Immediately after the shooting Goldrich was conveyed to the residence of his father, on Herron alley, Third ward, and Dr. J. P. Alcorn sent for, but he could afford no relief to the sufferer. McFarland was arrested by the police at the time and locked up.

Yesterday afternoon Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the body, when the following testimony was elicited:

TESTIMONY OF DENNIS KELLER.

Dennis Keller, sworn.—Reside at No. 234 Ohio street, where I keep a wholesale and retail liquor store. On Monday evening a number of friends from Erie visited my house, and I closed the store at eight o'clock. About half-past ten o'clock I went to the cellar to get some wine, and noticed two men standing in the store talking to my nephew. I approached them and asked them what they were doing there, when the prisoner said: "It is none of your business; I am Deputy Sheriff." I then told them to go home, when the prisoner struck me a severe blow on the left side of the face with his fist; while we were scuffling deceased caught me by the hair, when the prisoner stepped back, fired a pistol and deceased fell upon the floor. I followed prisoner out of the store, and helped to arrest him. Did not see the pistol.

TESTIMONY OF VICTOR G. KELLER.

Victor G. Keller, sworn—Reside at No. 230 Ohio street, and am nephew of previous witness. I was at my uncle's house on Monday evening; about ten o'clock two young men came into the store and demanded liquor. I told them that we only sold by the gallon or quart, when prisoner asked me if I knew who he was; I replied that I did not, when he stated that he was the Deputy Sheriff; I told him that it did not make any difference who he was as he could not have a drink. Uncle then came up and asked what was the matter, when prisoner told him he was the Deputy Sheriff. Uncle replied that he did not care if he was Sheriff, and seized him and tried to put him out. A fight then occurred, during which I struck prisoner twice, but did not knock him down. I saw deceased have hold of uncle by the hair, and immediately afterwards heard the report of a pistol. I did not see the pistol. Both the men were strangers to me.

TESTIMONY OF JOSEPH FISHER.

Joseph Fisher testified that he was on the opposite side of the street when the shooting took place. Saw Mr. Keller shove prisoner into the store, and heard him say, "Do you see what you have done; you have killed this man." The prisoner did not answer, but commenced to kick a man in front of him.

TESTIMONY OF THE PHYSICIAN.

Dr. James P. Alcorn testified that he was called upon about eleven o'clock on Monday night to visit deceased; examined the wound on his head, and found that the probe entered readily four and a half or five inches. Was satisfied that it would prove mortal, and so stated. At the request of Coroner Clawson, made a postmortem examination, and found that the ball penetrated the outer edge of the left ear, and passed into the brain; found a portion of the ball, which had broken off outside the skull. The wound was undoubtedly the cause of death.

TESTIMONY OF CHAS. RUSSELL.

Charles Russell sworn—Am a member of the Allegheny night police. On Monday night between ten and eleven o'clock, saw two men come up Ohio street, cross over to Mr. Keller's store and after standing a few moments on the pavement, open the door and go in. Shortly afterwards I heard a noise in the store, saw the door open and prisoner with arm elevated; heard report; did not see the pistol but could see the flash. Arrested the prisoner and searched him, but did not find any weapon. Think he was not sober.

TESTIMONY OF VALENTINE BECKERT.

Valentine Beckert testified that he was at Mr. Keller's house when the shooting occurred. Was at the upper end of the store, and did not see the pistol.

TESTIMONY OF ARTHUR HOPPER.

Arthur Hopper, a member of the Mayor's police, testified that he was acquainted with prisoner. Met him on Monday evening with deceased; he was slightly under the influence of liquor, and said he had had a difficulty with some parties early in the morning, and was going to see them again. Witness advised him to go home, when he said he would after he had taken his partner up street. Next saw him at Mr. Keller's store, after the shooting occurred. When under arrest, the prisoner told witness that he did not intend to shoot any one, and that some one had taken his pistol from him.

INQUEST CONTINUED.

There being no other witness present, the investigation was postponed until Thursday morning at ten o'clock.

The prisoner, who is about twenty years of age, was born in Allegheny City, and is very respectably connected. He appears to realize his situation keenly, and deeply regrets the occurrence. He has engaged R. S. Morrison, Esq., to act as counsel, and last evening had a preliminary examination before the Mayor, when the witnesses who testified before the Coroner's jury were examined. He will probably be committed to jail to-day to await the result of the Coroner's investigation.

The Trial of Lewis K. McCoy, for Murder, to Commence To-Day.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Steubenville, on Monday, Judge McIlvaine presiding, Lewis K. McCoy, indicted for the murder of Joseph McDonald, at McCoy's Station, on the C. & P. Railroad, on the 6th of April last, was brought into Court. District Attorney Dayton then said: If your Honor please, I now move to arraign Lewis K. McCoy on the indictment charging him with murder in the first degree. Mr. Trainor, counsel for the prisoner, said: I hope the Court won't proceed now; we're not prepared. Mr. Dayton said: The State is ready, your Honor, and anxious to proceed with this case. It is one of great importance and we feel that there should be no unnecessary delay. Mr. Trainor—"Mr. Marshall is to be here from Pittsburgh in the case, and he can't get here before Friday. Any how the case won't be tried this term, for we can't get ready, and another thing we have'nt yet made up our minds whether to take a change of venue or not." Judge McIlvaine said—"Mr. Trainor you can have till morning to make up your mind what course you propose." Mr. Trainor—"But Mr. Marshall can't be here in the morning." Judge—"It is not so material that he should be here at the arraignment, that I understand is all that is proposed in the morning. The longer the arraignment is postponed the less the probability of a trial at this term." Mr. Dayton—"The State is now and has been ready, and we feel that all the preliminaries to a trial should be conducted as speedily as is seemly and lawful. We are not willing to delay one hour longer. The prisoner has had a copy of the indictment since Saturday night, and we would like to have him arraigned either now or to-morrow. Mr. Trainor—"We have a right to time." Judge McIlvaine—"Yes; to twelve hours." Mr. Trainor—"Have a right to the Lord's day." Judge McIlvaine—"It is not the policy of the law to work hardships, and the Court has no desire to be unreasonable; a reasonable time we will give, but there can be no delay for foreign counsel. The arraignment may be postponed till Wednesday, when it must proceed."

ROBBERY IN ALLEGHENY.—A butcher named Christian Crouse was robbed on Monday afternoon, at his boarding house on the corner of Rebecca and Chartiers street, Allegheny, of one hundred and fifty-four dollars in money. Mr. Crouse, it appears, went to the cattle market during the afternoon, leaving the money stated in a bureau drawer in his room. On returning, Mr. Crouse went to the bureau, when he was astonished to find that the drawer had been opened and the money carried off. Suspicion at once attached to a boarder by the name of Robert King, who had disappeared very suddenly during the afternoon. The police were notified and put on his track, and the last seen of King was at Woods' Run, where he is said to have stolen a skiff and escaped. King is described as a man of five feet six inches in height, black side whiskers and stately built. The money stolen consisted of $133 in currency, $17 in silver coin.

SERIOUS FALL.—A man by the name of Donahue, residing near Shingiss street, on Boyd's Hill, met with an accident yesterday morning, which may result fatally. Workmen are engaged digging clay from the face of the hill, and for a space of several yards have excavated about half the width of the street on the top of the hill. This place was left wholly unprotected by a fence. Mr. Donahue was walking past there when he was attacked by a dog, and in stepping back to get out of his way, fell backward over the precipice. When he was taken up it was discovered that his skull was fractured, one shoulder broken, and the other dislocated. He was conveyed to his home, and Dr. McCook, with several other physicians, called in. The injured man will probably be taken to the hospital. He is a laboring man with a wife and several children depending on him.

A MAD BULL ON THE RAMPAGE.—The depredations of a mad bull created considerable excitement yesterday on Penn street, in the Fifth ward. He was being driven down Penn street, when he turned and tossed in the air the man who was driving him, and then dashed down the street. He knocked a couple of persons down, and then tossed a little child of Mr. Joseph Kay without injuring it severely. His last depredation before being secured was to charge on a hog running about loose, and tossing it in the air.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Workmen are engaged laying a new track in the vicinity of the Federal Street Station of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, in Allegheny.

CHAMPIONSHIP JUMPING MATCH.

Bob Way of Pittsburgh, Defeats Norman P. Bortle, of New York--Greatest Jump on Record.

The great National jumping contest, between Robert Way of Pittsburgh, and Norman P. Bortle, of New York, for a purse of two thousand dollars and the Championship of America, took place yesterday afternoon, at the Union Skating Park, in the Second Ward, Allegheny City. Although an admission fee to the Park was asked, a large crowd of spectators were present, and considerable interest was manifested in the match.

A ring was formed in the center of the park for the match, and the ground levelled. Way chose for his Judges, David Lewis and John Graham, and Bortle selected A. Nicholson and Fred. Wolf. The Judges chose as referee, Mr. Wm. McClure. The contestants made their appearance on the ground at three o'clock, Way being dressed in flesh colored tights and red "trunks," and Bortle in white tights and green "trunks." Both contestants are of slender build and medium height—Bortle, however being two or three inches taller than Way.

The referee then stated that the conditions of the match were that the contest would be awarded to the one making the farthest leap in ten jumps. As soon as one contestant made a better jump than his opponent, he was to stop, and the other would be allowed to make the jumps remaining until he got through the ten leaps.

The contest then began. In the first leap the referee decided that they were tie—each jumping a distance of twelve feet. In the second leap, Way jumped a distance of twelve feet five and a-half inches, beating his opponent. Way, according to the conditions, then withdrew. Bortle then made eight more leaps, but in no time scored the mark made by Way, his greatest jump being twelve feet and three inches—two and a half inches less than Way's. The referee accordingly awarded the match and championship in favor of Way, and the stakes were promptly handed over to the victor.

After the contest was over, Way made a trial jump. One hundred feet was marked on the ground, for ten jumps. Way then, at a stand still, commenced jumping, and made the ten jumps in succession. The last jump covered a distance of sixteen feet.

The backer of Way in the match was John Paisley, of this city, and for Bortle, Chas. Perkins, of New York. The jump made yesterday was the greatest on record, beating that made by Bortle last year, which was the best on record up till yesterday by one-half inch. Way and Bortle, it will be remembered, had a contest last summer, in which the latter beat the former, and was at the time of the match yesterday Champion of America, which title now belongs to Way, of Pittsburgh.

Extension of Allegheny Valley Railroad.

The cars on the Allegheny Valley Railroad yesterday, for the first time, ran through to Redbank Furnace, Armstrong county, carrying the mail. An excursion party participated in the opening up of this new link of the short through line to New York, and all enjoyed themselves on the trip. The work on the continuation of the road is progressing rapidly, and by next fall, it is thought, will be completed to Oil City, and in running order. The management of the road, under the direction of Col. Phillips, is determined to do all in its power to secure an early completion of a new route to the eastern seaboard.

ADLINGTON, THE MURDERER.—John B. Adlington, who plead guilty in the Criminal Court of Butler county to two indictments of murder in the second degree, in the killing of Sidney B. Cunningham and Wm. Teeples, and who was sentenced, on the 4th inst., to undergo an imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary, in Allegheny City, for the term of twelve years on each charge, making twenty-four years in all, was brought to that institution on Monday evening by Sheriff Stoer.

THE POISONING CASE IN ALLEGHENY.—The Coroner's jury empannelled to inquire into the facts connected with the death of Rachel Martin, who died suddenly on Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Brockuner, on Darragh street, Allegheny, reassembled last evening at the Allegheny Mayor's office, and after due deliberation, returned a verdict of "accidental poisoning."

Copyright Piracy Case.

COBURG, C. W., June 8.—The case of Dun Winan & Co. vs. Bradstreet, for alleged piracy of the Mercantile Agency, came up to-day. The Reference Book has occupied the attention of the Court, and a large number of witnesses were examined, all of whom proved that all inaccuracies in Dun Winan & Co.'s book, issued August, 1865, were faithfully copied in Bradstreet's book, and published in January, 1866. Four months afterward the town of Apricot was inserted in Winan's book as a trap, and was copied by Bradstreet. Other equally singular coincidences were established. The defendants, prior to entering upon the general issue, sought to establish a plea, to the effect that plaintiff forfeited the right to protection of the Court in consequence of their accidental omission to register their copyright. The point was under consideration when the Court arose. The case will probably occupy the whole of Monday. The counsel for plaintiff, Edward Blake, Q. C., and Mr. Wells; for defendant, the Hon. John Hillyard Cameron and Mr. McClellan.

The Zimmerman Patent Steam Cooking Apparatus.

Everybody who has given a trial to this invaluable accessory to the kitchen, agrees that it cannot be dispensed with. A more perfect labor-saver and cooking apparatus was never known. The demand for it is astonishing, and the testimonials in its favor are being multiplied with wonderful rapidity. The following is one of the recent certificates:

MESSRS. ROBERTS & SHERRATT:

Gents: I have had the Cooking Apparatus (Zimmerman's Patent,) manufactured by you, thoroughly tested in my family. It fully equals my expectations. I would not like to be without it. It is a labor-saving machine to the cook, economizing both fuel and food, and most effectually controls the odors produced in the culinary department. There is one item I note, though I cannot yet account for it; that is, that of eight or ten different articles cooked at the same operation, and in the same vessel, no piece of meat or other food was affected by the flavor of onions, apples, or other of the various articles. I wish you success in the introduction of this useful adjunct of the kitchen.

Respectfully, N. B. HATCH.

Pittsburgh, June 5, 1868.

Building Improvements in Pittsburgh--Important to Purchasers of Sewing Machines, etc.

The attention of the public has been attracted to a valuable improvement just completed on Fifth street, near the Cathedral, where a row of well designed, commodious and beautiful stores have been introduced. The largest and finest of these is now occupied by Mr. A. F. Chatoney, the General Agent for the celebrated Grover & Baker Sewing Machines. This new depot for the sale of these unequaled family and manufacturers's sewing machines is located at No. 105 Fifth street. The building is one of the most attractive in the business portion of this city, and has been completed at a considerable outlay of time and money. It is a brick structure, two stories high, and surmounted by a hugh sign, which may be read at a great distance, setting forth the character of the business carried on within. The first story has an elegant decorative heavy iron front manufactured by Messrs. W. J. Anderson & Co. The entrance measures nine and a half feet in width, and has a white and black diamond marble pavement of a very neat pattern. Directly overhead is suspended a newly-designed and exceeding brilliant light, completely illuminating the show-windows which flank both sides of the entrance. These windows are the largest in the city, and from any point one can obtain a perfect and unobstructed view of their contents. Each of them contains two immense plates of heavy French plate glass, imported expressly for the purpose by Messrs. G. J. Young & Son. These plates measure fifty-four inches in breadth, and one hundred and sixty inches in height—equal to nine feet wide, and thirteen feet, four inches high, in all. On entering, the visitor notices at the right a broad staircase built of white ash and surmounted by a splendidly-finished and very heavy balustrade. This flight of steps leads to the second floor, which contains two large, well ventilated, and exceedingly fine private offices. The general salesroom is sixteen feet high, seventy-four feet long, and twenty feet wide. The floor is covered with an elegant carpet, and from the ceiling are suspended several beautifully designed bronze chandeliers containing six gas jets each. The walls are about to be frescoed in oil after a design expressly prepared for Mr. Chatoney by one of the most experienced and skillful artists in this city. Near the entrance, to the left and against the wall, stands a heavy case of shelving, within which is kept the largest and best assortment of articles required in using the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine, such as needles of all sizes, silks of every shade of color, cotton and linen threads, oil, &c. In front of it stands a costly show case, with a heavily silver plated frame set with French plate glass, containing a very large variety of specimen work of unequaled finish, which was accomplished by the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine. On both sides of the sales room stand rows of these sewing machines, and an experienced lady is always in attendance to explain their operation. At the extreme end of the room is located the general business desk of the establishment. Back of the sales room is the ware room and shop. This apartment measures sixteen feet in the clear, forty feet long and twenty feet high, and contains a large stock of sewing machines, besides a well ordered shop where repairs, alterations, &c., are made by experienced journeymen.

The whole establishment presents a splendid aspect, and shows conclusively that the demand for the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine is exceedingly great. The carpenter work is one of the best finished jobs in the city, and was done by Mr. J. B. Harshaw. The painting, including the sign work over the entrance and surmounting the building, was executed by Messrs. Moore & Pollock. The carpets were furnished by Messrs. McFarland & Collins; the gas fitting and plumbing by Messrs. Jarvis, Halpine & Co. We have a word now to add in regard to the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines. They do not require an extended notice from our pen, for the reason that their merits are already immovably established in both America and Europe. But since there are several other sewing machine firms who claim to furnish the best machines, it is only just that we should put purchasers on their guard. The Grover & Baker Sewing Machine is endorsed by the very first among the leading private families in the United States, and by manufacturers both at home and abroad, as the best for general use. It is simple in its construction, and on that account commends itself to families particularly. It is easier managed than a shuttle stitch machine; is far more durable and makes a more elastic stitch; never gets out of order; is readily understood by inexperienced females; it possesses the advantage of working directly from the spools, instead of reeling the thread on a bobbin or shuttle; there is no necessity for fastening the ends; in the extent of the work it performs, it does the finest as well as the coarsest; it embroiders exquisitely; it requires less muscular effort to do its work; makes a more smooth and pliable stitch; the upper stitch is especially beautiful, the machine sews a greater variety of fabrics than any other; the seams do not change their appearance by washing; the tension adapts itself immediately to every varying thickness of fabric; there is no occasion for taking it apart for cleaning, or in changing heavy to light, or light to heavy work; it is always ready for use, and it is the cheapest machine ever made. Besides all this, we may add the facts that the movement of the machine is imparted to the needle by a revolving shaft without gears, or cogwheel, or cranks. A stationary, noiseless regulator causes the precise motion required to be imparted to the needle throughout each revolution of the shaft during its continuous rotary action. In consequence of this arrangement the Grover & Baker machine is almost noiseless, even in rapid action; sews with a steadiness and rapidity never before realized in heavy machines, and is the strongest in use. We consider it superior to any other machine; and more than that, we doubt whether human skill will ever develope one in the future to excel it.

Harlem Springs, Carroll Co., O.

These Springs, in connection with the Seminary buildings, will be opened for Boarders on the first of July. It is not intended as a place of fashionable resort, but a place eminently suiting the demands of those seeking an inexpensive and quiet retreat, removed from smoke and dust. A National Medicine.

One can hardly pick up a newspaper or turn a street corner now-a-days that he does not find, staring him in the face, the announcement that Prof. so-and-so has just discovered a medicine which is a panacea for all the evils that flesh is, or may be heir to. These "wonderful" discoveries usually have an existence of a few months, then disappear from public notice. The reason of their sudden extinguishment is apparent. They were humbugs. At the outset all medicinal preparations have an equal chance for success, as all are equally unknown; but the chaff is soon winnowed from the grain by the practical test which an unprejudiced public applies to all things. There are but few preparations of medicine which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any length of time. One of the few which we have now in mind, and which has been a long time familiar to nearly every household in the land, is the celebrated HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Their almost universal sale and use, and their emphatic endorsement from all portions of the country, compel the admission that they must be a specific for the ailments for which they are recommended. Letters before us attest their efficacy in diseases of the throat, bowels and liver. In that truly terrible complaint, dyspepsia, they are regarded as a sure cure. In Pittsburgh, where these Bitters are manufactured, their sale for home use is immense. This fact alone speaks volumes in their favor.—Extracts from the Muscatine Courier, Iowa, February 7, 1867.

FINANCE AND TRADE

TUESDAY EVENING, June 11, 1867.

There was no movement in the local money market to-day that indicated any immediate relief from the closeness that is upon it. Renewals of maturing paper are as common as ever. The outside market is at full round rates, and capital can be readily employed at from 10 to 12 per cent. The local stock market has greatly increased in transactions, and at full prices. The attendance at the Tuesday Evening's (McIlwaine's) Stock Sale was crowded, and the list of offerings larger than at any previous sale during the present year. Bank shares largely predominated, which were bid off at good prices. Some shares were a little under the previous sales, but not sufficient to indicate any marked decline:

—There is increased activity in government securities. The suspension of sales of the new Five-Twenties by the government has imparted an upward tendency to them, and there is a heavy advance noted in the New York quotations received to-day by Messrs. McVay & Co.:

—The receipts of the internal revenue, thus far this month, indicate that the commissioner's estimate of $20,000,000 for the month will be reached, which will make the yearly receipts in excess of the estimates made last March. The developments now being made regarding the manufacture of whisky, and its escape from the payment of the tax, will bring the whole subject prominently before Congress at the next meeting, where the question of raising the revenue will be greatly simplified if means are devised whereby the tax can be collected on the greater portion of the whisky that is manufactured. This done and the taxes on all other articles could be largely reduced, for whisky would pay $150,000,000 alone at the present rate.

—It is not generally known that the notes of New England State banks are now at a discount of 5 per cent. The reason of this heavy depreciation is that at Boston the Suffolk Bank and the Bank of Mutual Redemption have discontinued redeeming such notes since the first of June. As the amount outstanding is small, and as there is now no method of getting payment without sending the notes to the several banks by mail or by express, the uncurrent money brokers make the extra charges to cover the delay, expense and trouble involved. The notes of the banks of this State and those of the Western States are selling at various rates of discount, while those of the State of New York will probably cease next month to be redeemed by the Metropolitan Bank of New York, and will then speedily disappear from circulation.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, }
TUESDAY EVENING, June 11, 1867. }

Our general market continues dull, but there was some improvement noticeable to-day in the amount of transactions over those of yesterday. There was considerable activity in the flour market, but merely of a local character and to supply immediate wants. There was no change in prices since our last. We have no special remarks to make in regard to other articles of trade.

The receipts of some of the leading articles of produce, per river and rail, since the 1st inst., were as follows: Flour, 367 bbls; apples, 25 bbls; cheese, 204 boxes; corn, 590 sacks; barley 632 sacks; rye 1,054 sacks; oats, 1,222 sacks.

We quote as follows, which are the wholesale prices, unless otherwise stated:

APPLES—The market is bare of choice apples. We quote them in demand at $9@10 50 ₩ bbl.

BROOMS—We note sales of 200 dozen Western No. 2 at $2 50, and 60 dozen Economy at $3 25.

BEANS—Choice small white beans are in demand at $3 ₩ bush.

BUTTER—Prices are merely nominal. Most of the butter arriving is in very bad condition. We note sales of fresh packed at 16@17@18c ₩ lb. The general quotation, from store, is 15c ₩ lb.

CHEESE—Sales are reported of 14 boxes Western Reserve at 15@16c ₩ lb. Goshen may be quoted at 18c ₩ lb.

DRIED FRUITS—Apples and peaches are a drug on the market. We note sales of 10 sacks peaches, quarters at 9½c ₩ lb. Apples may be quoted at 6½@9c ₩ lb.

CANNED PEACHES—We note sales of 10 dozen cans peaches (2 lb. cans,) at $3 00 ₩ dozen.

EGGS—The receipts have been light, and prices have advanced considerably. We note sales to-day of 12 bbls. at 22@23c ₩ dozen.

FISH—We note sales of 100 half bbls. lake herring at $2@4 50 each.

FLOUR—We have no particular remarks to make in regard to flour. There was a rather more active trade done at last quotations. At Zanesville, Ohio, on Friday last the price of flour was put down as follows: Double extra, $12 00; single extra $10 00, and superfine $8 00 ₩ barrel. There has been no change since our last report, in this market, but there are indications of a still further decline at an early day. We quote good spring brands at $12 00@13 00 ₩ bbl., and winter at $13 00@14 00 ₩ bbl. We have reported sales of 200 bbls Clipper Mills, Dayton Winter, at $13 7 @14 00 ₩ bbl.

GRAIN—The grain market is very unsettled, and the transactions generally very unimportant in wheat there are no reported sales, but there is considerable arriving on the account of millers. In the absence of reported sales we omit quotations.

RYE—There is nothing doing of any consequence. We have a reported sale on the wharf of 200 bushels at $1 30 ₩ bushel, but from first brands we could not quote at more than $1 25 ₩ bush.

CORN—Market dull. We have reported sales of 2,000 bushels shelled, to arrive, at 85c ₩ bus.

OATS—Very little doing of any consequence. We note a sale of 200 bus, at the depot, at 68c ₩ bus.

HAY—Baled hay may be quoted dull at $20, and loose, ₩ wagon, at $22@25 ₩ ton. Receipts liberal, and prices tending downward.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, }
WEDNESDAY, June 12, 1867. }

Business was moderately active yesterday. The principal portion of the operations were for future delivery. Speculation was the order of the day. We have sales reported this morning that extend through a period of nineteen months, at the option of the sellers. This is certainly doing business ahead. Prices of crude have undergone no change. Previous figures will answer on the present occasion. The river to Oil City is too low for navigable purposes. The Allegheny river packets have laid up. No receipts of crude were reported. The market, however, contains a fair supply. Refiners have a good stock on hand. The rates on the spot were: 6½@7c for bulk; 11½@12c, packages included. The sales of crude, for present and future delivery, reached 10,000 barrels, as follows: 300 bbls Smith's Ferry oil, bulk, 45 gravity, 6½c ₩ gallon. Sales Allegheny—900 bbls bulk, 43 gravity, to fill a contract, 7c; 800 bbls bulk, 6½c. The following operations were for future delivery: 5,000 bbls bulk to be delivered between the 11th of June, 1867, and December 31st, 1868, at 12½c ₩ gal. and 3,000 bbls bulk for all 1868 delivery at 12c ₩ gal. These sales have a long time to run.

REFINED OIL—The market was without any particular change. The sales that were reported, all for future delivery, reach 6,000 bbls bonded, for Philadelphia delivery as follows: 500 bbls July at 25c; 500 bbls August at 26c; 500 bbls September at 26c; 500 bbls October at 26c; 500 bbls November at 26c, and 500 bbls December at 26c ₩ gal. 3,000 bbls delivered—1,000 bbls September at 26½c; 1,000 bbls October at 26⅝c, and 1,000 bbls November at 26⅝c ₩ gal. Free oil was unchanged as regards price or demand.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

CHICAGO.

The cattle market during the past week was dull, stale and unprofitable for drivers. Very few have derived any considerable profit from this week's speculations, while many have been heavy losers. The few who had studied the market, and become convinced that there was nothing to justify the belief that the extravagant rates that have obtained during the past two or three weeks, could be sustained, and made their purchases with this fact in view, were in most instances, enabled to save themselves; but those who operated largely, basing their purchases upon the almost unprecedented prices of the previous week and the week before, have abundant reason to mourn. The reaction in prices in the New York market, which those best qualified to judge were satisfied could not long be averted, came earlier and was more decided, than was generally anticipated. The market opened dull and depressed, and continued thus throughout, values, under continued discouraging advices from the markets abroad, steadily depreciating until a reduction of fully 50@75c ₩ 100 lbs was suffered. The unsettled and drooping character of the Eastern markets, the marked uncertainty attending all operations in that quarter, and the very close margin upon which speculators were compelled to operate, materially lessened the shipping demand and offerings that would have been eagerly taken up at any time during the two preceding weeks at $9@10 00, were slow at $8@8 00. The shrewdest operators have bought very sparingly, and with the utmost caution. A few of the more venturesome, however, those who seem to live more upon the excitement of traffic than upon the accruing profits of their transactions, have taken hold with considerable show of spirit, though the aggregate of their ventures is not numerically large. The receipts of really desirable shipping grades were light, though no serious inconvenience was experienced on this account; the supply of such proving quite sufficient to meet legitimate wants of the trade. Rough, half-fattened steers, bony cows, light heifers, and coarse "three-cornered" oxen, made up the great bulk of the arrivals, and to this fact is due, to some extent, the unsatisfactory condition of the market for the past week. While nearly all of the upper grades have been worked off, some 800 head of the lower class were left over unsold, and unsalable except at greatly reduced rates. About 400 head of the "scallawag" order were driven out and herded upon the adjacent prairie, where it is to be hoped they will be allowed to remain until fed up to marketable condition. Light receipts are predicted for the coming week, but this will not save the market from a further decline, unless there should be a marked improvement in point of quality. Good first and second class steers, suitable for the New York and Albany markets, and good fat cows, and light fleshy steers, for the markets of Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo and Toledo, and to supply the wants of the local trade, are the grades chiefly in demand, and drovers will do well to confine their purchases principally to the above descriptions.

On Saturday there was scarcely any movement in the market, and prices were nominally unchanged. The fresh receipts were only 69 head, and the entered sales 151 head, which were taken on local account. We quote the market for the week as dull at a decline of 75c@$1 00 on medium and common stock, and 50@75c on the upper grades. The following were the

CLOSING PRICES.

Extra Beeves—Fine, fat, well formed, 4 to 6 year old steers, and averaging 1,200 lbs and upwards	$9 25@9 50
Prime Beeves—Good, well fatted, finely-formed steers, averaging from 1,100 to 1,400 lbs, at	8 50@9 00
Fair Grades—Fair steers, in fair flesh, averaging 1,000@1,200 lbs, at	7 50@8 25
Medium Class—Medium steers and good cows, fit for city slaughter and averaging 800@1,000 lbs, at	6 50@7 50
Stock Cattle—Common cattle in decent flesh, averaging 800@1,100 lbs, at	6 25@7 50
Inferior—Light and thin cows and steers	5 00@6 00

The following are the rates of freight on Live Stock by the different Eastern routes:

By the Michigan Southern and Grand Trunk roads, $35 to Buffalo, with passes over the Grand Trunk from Detroit to Buffalo, and no passes over the Michigan Southern.

By the Michigan Central and Great Western to Suspension Bridge, $50 and passes.

By the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago road to Pittsburgh, $85 and no return passes.

Hogs—The market was active and buoyant throughout under moderate receipts, and with more favorable advices from the leading Eastern markets, and an advance of fully 25@50c has been established on the closing rates of last week. In point of quality the arrivals were a decided improvement on those of the previous week, though in numbers they show a falling off of 12,990 head. New York and Buffalo buyers were the heaviest operators, though Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore and other Eastern points were well represented. The market closes firm with all sold. We quote the closing prices as follows:

Good to choice	$6 00@6 25
Medium to fair	5 60@5 80
Common	5 25@5 50
Stock hogs	4 75@5 00

Sheep—The market for the week just closed, has been dull and drooping throughout. There has been a fair movement in good to choice mutton grades, on Eastern account, and for such fair rates have been realized, but for common descriptions there has been little inquiry, and holders found it impossible to close out, except at a sacrifice. The market closed dull at a range of $3@6 for inferior to choice.

LOUISVILLE.

At the Shelby House the market was fairly supplied with all kinds of stock, and prices about the same, with the exception of a decline in sheep. The market for beef cattle was fair and prices about the same, ranging from 6½@7c for good butcher cattle; 5@6c for medium, and 4@5c for common and rough; heavy shipping will bring from 7@8c. The market for hogs was about the same, and we quote prices from 6@6½c, and 6@6½c for the lighter grades. Prices of sheep ranged from $3@5 for the best, and $2@3 for the other grades.

At the Bourbon House the cattle market was moderately active, but prices ruled a shade lower. Sales ranged at 7@8c for good smooth shipping. The market was overstocked with hogs, and prices were down to 6@6½c for the best, and 5½@6c for fair to light stock. Sheep were offered in large supply and sold at $4@4½c for choice and extra heavy, and $1 75@2 50 ₩ head for common to fair.

At the Southern stock yards the supply of beef cattle has been equal to the demand, while good beef has held up to last week's prices; common has made a decline. We quote best for shipping purposes 7½@8c, and good butcher stuff 7@7½c; medium 5½@6½c; common and rough 4@5c.

RIVER TELEGRAMS.

Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, June 11.—The river is falling slowly, with seven feet water in the canal. The Richmond arrived from New Orleans.

RIVER NEWS.

STEAMERS ARRIVED AND DEPARTED.

Arrived.

Gallatin	Carlisle	Greensboro.
Elisha Bennett	Cox	Greensboro.
Fayette	Donaldson	Brownsville.
Elizabeth	Houghton	Elizabeth.
Grey Eagle	Brennan	Parkersburg.

Departed.

Gallatin	Carlisle	Greensboro.
Elisha Bennett	Cox	Greensboro.
Chieftain	Hendrickson	Greensboro.
Fayette	Donaldson	Brownsville.
Elizabeth	Houghton	Elizabeth.
Leni Leoti	Hamilton	Parkersburg.
Kate Putnam	Lightner	St. Louis.

THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—The weather yesterday was very warm. Both rivers are falling; appearances indicate low water. On the Monongahela marks four feet six inches. The Allegheny five feet six inches. The Kate Putnam left for St. Louis with about all the freight she could manage. The packet Argosy leaves to-day, on time for Cincinnati. The Belle Vernon, a first class packet, leaves for St. Louis on Thursday. The Leni Leoti left yesterday for Parkersburg; she will be followed to-day by the side-wheeler Grey Eagle, at noon. Passengers who take the Argosy for Cincinnati, will be in time for the Westmoreland, that leaves for New Orleans on the arrival of the former at Cincinnati. The Columbia, a first class packet, is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville. Business on the landing was dull, freights to all points being scarce; boats, however, by loading in turn, manage to pick up a pretty fair trip. The Allegheny river packets have laid up on account of low water. We counted twenty-three towboats at the Monongahela landing yesterday.

THE steamer Silver Moon arrived at Cincinnati from Memphis on Sunday, with 600 bales of cotton.

THE towboat Wild Duck and model barges Dove and Swan are coming up with a big trip.

THE Ida Rees, Capt. J. Browne, has laid up at Cincinnati for the present.

THE steamer Kate Putnam left yesterday for St. Louis with all the freight she could carry. The next boat in turn is the Belle Vernon, Capt. Darragh.

THE Richmond and the Great Republic are announced to leave New Orleans together on the 16th instant.

CAPT. MCGILL, of the famous Atlantic, has contracted with the builders of the Dexter for a large steamer, to be put on the stocks immediately.

THE following tow boats passed Cairo on Saturday bound south with big tows: Collier, Grand Lake and Hercules. The A. J. Baker passed up with a lot of empty boats.

CAPT. GEORGE W. REBO's fine packet Columbia is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville on this day. To persons going that way a fine opportunity is presented. Capt. Russell does the honors in the office.

HARD ON LOUISVILLE.—The Louisville and the Louisiana, being unable to obtain a trip from Louisville, proceeded to Evansville, where they were, on Friday, accommodated with ten thousand sacks of corn apiece, and forthwith cleared for New Orleans.

NASHVILLE, June 8.—The river is falling, though almost imperceptibly. There are still about four and a half feet on Harpeth Shoals. The Spray brought to this port 15,000 barrels of salt. She clears to-day for Cincinnati.

THE Parkersburg packet for this day is the steamer Grey Eagle, Captain Brennan. The hour of her departure is 12 M. To persons going that way a fine opportunity is presented.

THE work on the Dick Fulton towboat is progressing rapidly. She will be ready to leave on the first coal boat rise when completed. She will rank as one of the fastest towboats that ever floated. Her machinery is all new; her boilers, four in number, were built expressly, the materials being of the best description.

AT LAST.—We understand that Mr. Wm. M. McPherson has closed the contracts with Prime Emerson, of the "Grandstreet Marine Railway, for the construction of a new hull for the machinery of the Belle. The hull will be 280 feet long, with a depth of hold of 8½ feet. The new boat will be ready for fall business.

THE punctual passenger steamer Argosy leaves this day at noon for Cincinnati and way points. Captain Vandergrift is in charge, while Messrs. Scott and Murphy will do the honors in the office. The Argosy will take New Orleans and St. Louis freight and passengers, and re-ship them on first class steamers.

ARRIVAL OF THE RUTH AT ST. LOUIS.—The Republican says, the Ruth arrived at an early hour; the damage occasioned by the explosion of the "nigger" boiler on the St. Marys, is but slight, and will be fully repaired. Both heads and all the flues of the exploded boiler were thrown into the ladies' cabin of the Ruth.

THE fine packet Sherman leaves Cincinnati on Friday next for St. Louis, on the arrival of the Argosy from this port. The Sherman is commanded by Geo. N. Baker, an experienced and attentive officer. The Argosy leaves this port on Wednesday at noon. A speedy trip to St. Louis is certain to all that leave on the Argosy.

ON Saturday evening the steamer Dexter was launched at Jeffersonville. A thousand persons attended. The boat bent considerably in going into the water, but it will not probably injure her hull. She is said to be one of the finest boats in the country. The Dexter was built by Capt. Sam. Montgomery, is 315 feet long, 41 feet beam, and her total breadth 80 feet.

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., June 9—7 P. M.—EDS. COM:—The river is falling slowly, with five feet in the pass over the falls. Weather clear and warm; wind southeast during the forenoon, and northeast in the afternoon. Steamers Havana, Clifton and Emerald passed down. The pilots have come down to half price for piloting over the falls for a while.

THE splendid side-wheel steamer Westmoreland, Captain Edward Evans, will leave Cincinnati for Memphis and New Orleans on Friday next, on the arrival of the Argosy, of this city. A fine opportunity is now offered to go South in a fine side-wheel packet, commanded by one of our own townsmen, and as clever an officer as ever trod the deck of a steamer. The Argosy leaves here on Wednesday.

STEAMERS IN PORT AT CINCINNATI ON MONDAY.—Laurence, Minneola, Lizzie Hopkins, Nightingale, Starlight, Swallow, John H. Groesbeck, Ezra Porter, Wauanita, Ida Rees, Shamrock, Sherman, Champion, Emma Floyd, Westmoreland, Harry Dean, Argosy, (for New Orleans,) Messenger, Anna, R. R. Hudson, W. F. Curtis, Magnolia, Cottage No. 2, America, General Buell and Major Anderson.

A MEMPHIS paper says: Mr. James Roland, clerk of the Dan Able, reports the levee at Mrs. Savage's, forty miles above Vicksburg, as having caved in, a few days since, and a large number of the plantations, never before under water, are inundated and ruined thereby. This season's cotton crop is entirely destroyed over a large tract of country by this disaster. Mr. R. also reports several sudden deaths recently at Friar's Point.

THE fine passenger packet Belle Vernon, Captain J. J. Darragh, is announced for Evansville, Cairo and St. Louis. This boat has the best of accommodations and is in charge of careful and attentive officers, who will see that passengers are well cared for. The Belle Vernon will take Missouri and Upper Mississippi river freight. To persons going that way a fine opportunity is presented.

THE United States Local Inspectors of Steamers at Galena, George W. Girdon and James McMurchy, have published a report of the investigation into the steamer Lansing explosion, and are of the opinion that the cause of the explosion of the boilers was produced by a scarcity of water in the boilers at the time of the explosion, and by an overpressure of steam, and that the engineer, John C. Cromley, was negligent and inattentive to his duties, and therefore revoke his license.

THE Vicksburg Times says: Quite a serious accident occurred on the down trip of the Calumet, by which several men were severely injured, and Mr. D. W. Lankin, of the well known firm of Johnson & Lamkin of this city, had his leg broken. It seems that a large dead tree fell across the boat as she was about making a landing, and the parties who were hurt were at the time standing on the boiler deck.

FROM ONE OF THE MOUNTAIN STEAMERS.—The Guidon, when last heard from, reached a point in the Rocky Mountain neighborhood, and was progressing finely. She left St. Louis the sixteenth of the mountain fleet, had passed six of them, and there were three of them in sight at the time her report closed. It was thought she would reach her destination by the first of this month. She is doubtless on her downward trip at this time. The water in the Upper Mississippi is high, and all the mountain bound fleet are reported as making good progress.

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT BOATS AT THE MONONGAHELA LANDING.—Above the bridges—Elisha Bennett, Elizabeth, Chieftain. Below—Argosy, Delaware, Belle Vernon, Armadillo, Grey Eagle, Armenia, Julia No. 2, Silver Cloud No. 2, R. C. Gray, Columbia, Kate Robinson, Tom Rees No. 2, tic Alps, Antelope, Star, Mary Davage, J. S. Neal, Niagara, Jacob Painter, Arrow, Bengal Tiger, Reindeer, Coal City, Eagle, W. F. Wilson, Tom Rees, Oil Valley, Resolute, Warner, Hornet, Coal Hill. At Landing—Lion, Billy Hudson, Mary Ann, Storm. Boats at Allegheny Landing—Passenger and Freight—Petrolia, Urilda, Echo No. 3, Ida Rees No. 2, Greenback. Tow Boats—Alex. Chambers, Hawk Eye, Brilliant, Louisville, Dick Fulton, D. Bushnell, Gipsy, Albion, Monitor, Blue Lodge, Keystone.

THE SITUATION AT NEW ORLEANS ON THE 6TH.—The weather was clear, bright and quite warm, though a fine breeze prevailed all day.

All things considered, things are as much doing as we had any right to expect at this season. The boats leaving had very fair trips of both freight and passengers.

The river, before the city is about the same as we have last reported, being 2 feet 5 inches below the Surveyor's mark of the high water of 1862.

THE Cairo Democrat has the following account of a race on the Ohio:

Josh Throop's boat, the Mayflower, and Tom Wilson's boat, the Hero, towing two barges, contested for the horns between Shawneetown and Cairo, both leaving that point at the same time, and keeping in sight of each other all the way down. The Mayflower got into Cairo a little ahead, but then she took a mean advantage of the Hero in stopping at every landing to reef, while the Hero didn't stop at all. The man with an ox team who tried to beat both boats, hasn't got in yet.

THE SITUATION AT CINCINNATI.—The Gazette has the following:

About the wharf quietness and serenity prevail in beautiful and harmonious consonance with the character of the day. The arrivals were not many, and boats and crews were seemingly content to rest in peace as soon as secured in port.

During the past week business has been exceedingly dull, with but few departures outside of the regular packets. Several days are now required to properly load a boat for any port, and many steamboatmen in desperation are tripping off to distant haunts, or seeking pleasure in the wilds of the country, knowing that

"Man is not a man
If his chief good and market of his time
Be but to sleep and feed."
